Fear Legation Guard Will Be Sent Out to Battle Chinese Near Peiping

(COPYRIGHT, 1932, BY UNITED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Since the Japanese advance into the Peiping area is causing fear and apprehension in the legation quarter of the ancient Chinese capital, it was reliably reported today in advices reaching Washington.

Foreign diplomats in Peiping are discussing the dangerous international situation that might result should the Japanese legation guard there be ordered to service against the Chinese outside the city.

They are alarmed, too, lest Japanese forces, advancing from Peiping, should be repulsed, fighting into the city.

The situation is considered particularly delicate from the American standpoint. Col. R. O. Hooker, commander of the American marine legation guard, is the senior foreign officer. As such, custom might make him commander of all the foreign forces in an emergency.

Since the legation quarter of Peiping was beleaguered by the "Boxers" early in the century, nearly all foreign powers have stationed troops there to guard their diplomats. The United States has about 600 marines.

Reasons for apprehension among foreign diplomats are reliably summarized thus:

Heavy Japanese troop concentrations have been reported in southern Manchuria, southeast of Peiping, and also along the Manchurian-Jehol border. If these troops should advance toward Peiping, Chinese troops from Peiping might go to meet them.

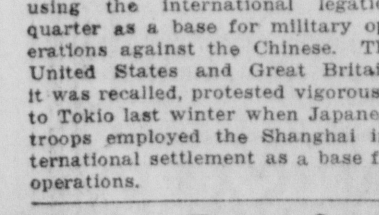

In that event, some observers fear the Japanese legation guard might be ordered to attack the Chinese troops from the rear.

Until the Japanese-Chinese quarrel started last fall, such a move would have been improbable. Traditionally, the foreign troops in Peiping act only on the advice of their respective ministers. Neutral observers think it unlikely that the Japanese envoy would use his troops except for their legal purpose of defending the legation quarter.

Since the military in Tokio gained control, however, they are said to have used troops to suit themselves. Therefore there is some fear among diplomats in Peiping lest the commander of the Japanese legation guard send his men out after the Chinese, despite the minister's attitude.

This, dispatches say, would weaken the general legation guard in a time of stress. Some observers believe it also would raise the question of whether the Japanese were using the international legation quarter as a base for military operations against the Chinese. The United States and Great Britain, it was recalled, protested vigorously to Tokio last winter when Japanese troops employed the Shanghai international settlement as a base for operations.

CHAPIN TAKES CABINET POST THIS MORNING

New Commerce Secretary Makes Plea for United Efforts for Recovery

(Copyright, 1932, by United Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(UP)—A plea for united effort toward the return of better times was made today by Roy D. Chapin when he assumed office as Secretary of Commerce.

Chapin was sworn into office, succeeding Robert L. Lamont, who resigned last week, in a brief ceremony at the secretary's office in the new department of commerce building.

Only a few attaches of the department were present. The oath was administered by Edward Libbey, chief clerk of the department.

While announcing himself pleased with recent business developments, Chapin declined to make any prediction. He said:

"Naturally, like other Americans, I am gratified at the unmistakably better tone that now prevails in our industry and marks our trade.

"Concerning the future trend, I will not be so bold as to venture a prediction—but one thing is very certain, we must all exert ourselves to the utmost to strengthen all favorable factors and to make the inevitable 'turn' come as soon as possible.

"The resources of the commerce department, which is designed solely to help business, should be a potent instrument in aiding an advance along the upward road."

HOOVER BACK FROM CAMP AT RAPIDAN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(UP)—President Hoover returned from a week end at his Rapidan camp and went to work immediately on the speech he will deliver at the notification ceremonies here Thursday night.

Mr. Hoover had expected to complete the speech while at his camp, but the unusual heat in his mountain retreat interfered with his plans. He spent the week end in rest and motored back to Washington in the comparative coolness of early morning.

The president's speech is practically completed, but Mr. Hoover wishes to revise it in a few places before sending it to the printer.

MRS. KEITH MILLER AGAIN TAKES STAND

COURTROOM, MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 8.—(UP)—Mrs. Jessie M. Keith-Miller lost her love for Haden Clarke "because he was a liar" and does not love his memory since his death, she revealed today as she resumed her testimony in the murder trial of Capt. William M. Lancaster in Clark's death.

Clarke was fatally shot on the morning of April 21 in Mrs. Keith-Miller's cottage in which Clarke and Lancaster occupied the same sleeping room. She has steadfastly held to her contention and that of Lancaster that Clarke committed suicide.

POLICE SEARCH FOR SLAYER OF YOUTH

MODESTO, Cal., Aug. 8.—(UP)—Handicapped by lack of clues, county authorities today marked time in their search for a degenerate, who, they believed, murdered 11-year-old Jackie Sykes.

The boy, whose body was found stripped of clothing and hanging to a tree in an abandoned orchard a block from his home at Patterson, Cal., at first was believed to have committed suicide following a quarrel with his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sykes.

Patrick Henry Arrested Making Speech

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Patrick Henry was arrested while making a speech in a Brooklyn park today. He was deprived of his liberty for one day. Henry was charged with intoxication.

NEPOTISM HIT AT BY VOTERS OVER COUNTRY

Twenty-three Congressmen With Relatives on Payroll Eliminated

(Copyright, 1932, by United Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Congressmen who carry relatives on the government payroll are being retired at a rapid rate.

At least 23 have fallen by the wayside thus far. Fifteen were defeated for renomination by their own parties. Eight saw the handwriting on the wall or for other reasons retired without attempting to come back.

Numerous others are due for retirement, as barely half of the states have held their congressional nominating primaries. All survivors must run the gauntlet of the voters in the general elections in November.

The casualty list spread over more than a dozen states. It reaches into every section, including North Dakota, Illinois, Tennessee, Indiana, Pennsylvania and several other states. Minnesota turned up four casualties, Missouri three.

Issues arising from the widespread existence of the family payroll racket has figured in numerous Congressional contests since the House payroll records were thrown open to public inspection as a result of United Press dispatches last spring reporting the fact that more than 100 members of Congress were supporting on the government payroll, wives, daughters, sons, and in-laws, some of whom never appeared in Washington.

One of the hardest fights occurred in Tennessee. Representative J. Ridley Mitchell, Democrat, has just been renominated by a close vote. He introduced a bill in Congress last spring to abolish nepotism and to punish it by dismissal. By a close vote, which may be contested, he defeated Representative Edwin L. Davis, Democrat, who was charged with having sent two daughters to college while carrying them on the Congressional payroll. Under the reorganization act, the districts of Davis and Mitchell were merged. They fought it out with odds strongly favoring Davis until the vote was counted.

The most striking upset due to the issue of nepotism was the defeat of Senator Smith W. Brookhart, Republican, Iowa.

FOREST FIRE LAYS 1500 ACRES BARE

NORTHFORK, Calif., Aug. 8.—(UP)—A forest fire which already had swept over 1500 acres of brush land today threatened valuable stands of yellow pine timber at the foot of Pine Ridge on the Fresno-Sierra Lakes highway.

A hundred additional men were to be sent to the fire lines today to aid the 100 working under the direction of Sierra Forest Rangers.

The fire, it was believed, may have started from a cigarette carelessly thrown aside by a fisherman. It was the first major blaze this year in the mountains east of Fresno.

A small fire, also believed to have been started by a smoker, broke out Sunday at Fresno Dams, four miles northwest of Bass Lake, but was brought under control by a crew of 15 forest rangers.

LIBBY HOLMAN TO SURRENDER BEFORE NIGHT

Broadway's Darling Accused of Murdering Husband to Ask Bail

WENTWORTH, N. C., Aug. 8.—(UP)—Libby Holman Reynolds, stage star, today was ordered released on bail after her attorneys had pleaded for her under a writ of habeas corpus.

She had surrendered to face an indictment charging murder in the mysterious death of her youthful husband, Smith Reynolds, heir to a vast tobacco fortune.

WINTON, N. C., Aug. 8.—(UP)—Libby Holman Reynolds, stage star, today was ordered released on bail after her attorneys had pleaded for her under a writ of habeas corpus.

She had surrendered to face an indictment charging murder in the mysterious death of her youthful husband, Smith Reynolds, heir to a vast tobacco fortune.

She will surrender, her father and attorneys promised, before midnight on a charge that she and Albert Walker shot and killed her millionaire playboy husband, Smith Reynolds, Walker's "best friend."

Her surrender will send attorneys into court with petitions that she be released on bail—with a plea that she is an expectant mother of a child to be borne to the man the state charges she murdered.

Habeas Corpus proceedings will be instituted if need be, as they were for Walker who is now free on $25,000 bond on the same charge. The charge was made in a grand jury true bill which left the degree of the charge to the prosecutor.

First degree murder is not a bailable charge. Walker was freed with the reservation that the release was not to prevent a first degree verdict if the evidence convinced the jurors.

Time of Libby's arrival and her means of travel from her secret hideaway where she had been shielded from public attention so successfully for many days, were not announced.

Libby came here for the first time a few months ago as the bride of Smith Reynolds, heir to the R. J. Reynolds tobacco fortune. Reynolds, the 600 acre Reynolds.

AVIATRIX KILLED IN PLANE CRACKUP

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Aug. 8.—(UP)—Miss Mildred Kauffman, 25 year old aviatrix, died here today from injuries received when two airplanes locked wings and crashed to the ground. Three others in the accident suffered only minor injuries.

Miss Kauffman, a licensed record pilot, set a world's record for women fliers when she looped the loop 46 times while flying at St. Louis February 21, 1930.

Miss Kauffman was flying about 75 feet above Fairfax airport last night when her ship collided with a plane piloted by Don Moss. Russell Shaw was a passenger in Miss Kauffman's plane, and Jack Lettich, 12, was riding with Rose.

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Paraguay's bitter dispute with her neighbor, Bolivia, continued to sizzle today, with two Bolivian army fliers held captive at Fort General Aquino where their plane was forced down.

Fort Aquino is in the Gran Chaco, over which the two nations are quarreling. The two fliers, captured by Paraguayan troops after their ship had been wrecked, were Lieutenant Elias Belmonte and Armando Goltia.

Trading Is Heaviest In Over Year

Railroads and Industrials Reach New Highs for Movement Today

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Transactions on the New York Stock exchange crossed the five-million-share mark today for the first time in more than a year as the bull movement entered its second month with rises of 1 to 5 points.

The day started at a 7,000,000-share pace but slowed down during several periods of profit-taking. At one time tappers, geared to handle 7,000,000-share sessions, were 10 minutes behind.

Each spurt was followed by realizing sales, but on each decline new buying orders were uncovered and the rise resumed. Near the close, Steel was sold rather heavily on a Dow-Jones estimate the corporation's backlog of unfilled orders as of July 30, to be made public at noon today, would set a new low record.

This estimate had a dampening effect on the general list, and some irregularity was produced. Railroad shares enjoyed an excellent market most of the day. At one time Union Pacific was 71, up 8 points, and Atchafalaya 49, up 8 1-2, while the remainder of the group rose 1 to 5 points. These gains were reduced before the close.

American Telephone reached 114 1-4 for the first time in this movement, where it was up 6 1-4 points. Western Union stocks and bonds made wide gains. Utilities generally were higher although near the close some descended below the previous close.

In the industrial division leadership was transferred to American Can. That issue spurted from a low of 47 1-8 to 55 1-2 where it was up 6 1-2 points from the previous close. It lost part of the gain before the close. Allied Chemical moved over an arc of 6 points from 75 1-2 to 81 1-2 the latter price being up 3 1-2 points. Auburn automobile ranged between 77 1-4 and 82 the latter showing a net gain of 8 points. At one time gains of 2 to 6 points were noted in National Biscuit Case Du Pont and Westinghouse Electric.

Motor shares were given a whirl although statistics showed production sharply lower. General Motors, whose July sales totaled 32,349 units, against 55,987 in June and 85,054 in July, 1931, led the automobile group, coming out in blocks of 1,000 to 5,000 shares and rising to a new high on the movement, more than double its recent low.

Coppers were up on higher prices

BOLIVIA SITUATION STILL IS SIZZLING

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Paraguay's bitter dispute with her neighbor, Bolivia, continued to sizzle today, with two Bolivian army fliers held captive at Fort General Aquino where their plane was forced down.

Fort Aquino is in the Gran Chaco, over which the two nations are quarreling. The two fliers, captured by Paraguayan troops after their ship had been wrecked, were Lieutenant Elias Belmonte and Armando Goltia.

GUARDIANSHIP IS SOUGHT FOR HEIR

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Guardianship for Charles Patrick Grogan, 25, heir to a $500,000 estate left by his father, Patrick Grogan, known as "the olive king," was sought today with the filing of a petition in superior court.

Grogan was the victim of tragic episode of seven years ago which saw his mother, Mrs. Grace Grogan Young, slain in 1925, and his stepfather a suicide.

His mother's body was found under the floor of a cabin in Beverly Glen. Her second husband, Dr. T. W. Young, dentist, was charged with the murder. During his trial he took his own life while in the county jail by wrapping an electric light wire around his neck.

AMERICA CAPTURES SPRINGBOARD TITLE

OLYMPIC STADIUM, Los Angeles, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Michael Riley Gallitzen of Los Angeles brought the Olympic springboard diving championship to the United States today.

Universally known in his home city as Mickey Riley, this tow-haired lad student of U. S. C. scored a decisive victory over his 12 rivals.

MAYORS TO ASK COUNTY BOARD FOR GAS FUNDS

Will Appear Before Supervisors at Meeting in Court house Tuesday

MAYOR THOMAS F. MURPHINE, of San Clemente, acting as spokesman of the subcommittee of the organized group of mayors of the cities of Orange county, will appear before the board of supervisors tomorrow to make a formal joint request on that body to give to the cities 32 1-2 per cent of the gasoline and license tax received by the county from the state.

At a recent meeting of the mayors it was moved to ask the county board of supervisors to "allot the cities of Orange county, according to a plan to be agreed upon by and between the board of supervisors and a special committee consisting of the mayors of Orange county cities, 32 1-2 per cent of the sum of sums accruing to Orange county from state road funds, which shall be used by the cities—for the construction and maintenance of designated city streets, that are connecting links with through county or state roads."

This resolution has since been adopted by city councils of the county.

Mayor Murphine in his talk will cite the following reasons such a distribution of funds should be made to cities by the board:

1—People of cities pay 65 per cent of the gasoline and license tax money.

2—One-half of all travel in the state is on city streets.

3—Cities only ask aid for the streets connecting with state or county roads.

4—The cities of Orange county maintain 500 miles of streets, and the county 800 miles, so that one-half of 65 per cent of the tax and license money for cities seems a reasonable request.

5—Tax delinquencies have increased 100 per cent in recent years and the residents of cities must have aid.

6—With a reduction to 10 cents in the county road tax and one-half of the license and gas tax money the county would still have more than $300 per mile for maintenance of roads outside of cities.

The subcommittee of mayors which drew up the resolution adopted by the city councils for which Mayor Murphine will speak included the mayors of Santa Ana, Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange and San Clemente. A move is now on foot to form a permanent organization of the mayors of Orange county. Mayor William Hale of Fullerton is chairman of the general group and called the conference from which the joint request to the supervisors emanated.

PROF. PICCARD TO SOAR WEDNESDAY

ZURICH, Switzerland, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Prof. August Piccard, frail and bushy-haired Belgian scientist, completed plans today for his second ascent 10 miles into the heavens where he hopes to obtain invaluable data concerning the cosmic rays, probably by Wednesday of this week.

His huge balloon, with an improved gondola, to carry himself and his companion 50,000 feet or more above the earth, is on the ground.

It was reported that King Albert of Belgium will come to Zurich to witness the professor's feat. Mrs. Piccard and their five children will attempt to follow the flight by automobile.

The adventure-for-science will be started at dawn. The balloon will not be brought down until sunset. Professor Piccard said today that he hopes to remain eight hours in the stratosphere.

Deer Killed By Auto Driven By Santa Anan

In Africa, if the movies are to be believed, they run down game in automobiles. And, inadvertently, it was done near Laguna Beach Saturday night.

Bruce Harding, son of James Harding, of 1427 Bush street, was returning from Laguna Beach. He made a sharp turn in Laguna canyon, just as a frightened deer, probably blinded by the lights of the car, started across the highway directly in front of Harding's automobile.

Before Harding could apply the brakes, his machine crushed the life out of the deer.

That was why patients at the Orange county hospital enjoyed venison at dinner today.

GARBO BACK IN NATIVE SWEDEN FOR LONG REST

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, Aug. 8.—(UP)—Greta Garbo returned to her native Sweden in triumph today, to be greeted by 10,000 people and a horde of newspapermen.

"I am not returning to the United States in the near future," she told the press. "I hope for rest and quiet somewhere in Sweden."

She denied a report that she was buying the late Ivar Kreuger's residence as a studio.

Miss Garbo, who has kept herself in seclusion and dodged reporters since leaving California, surprised newspapermen by receiving them in the smoking room of the liner Gripsholm after it entered the outer harbor.

She avoided questions about her future plans, explaining:

"I am on a holiday and I just want a few weeks of complete rest and seclusion."

"I am not exactly afraid of the press"—this accompanied by a wistful Garbo smile—"but I do not like so much written about me. My work is in the studio. That is more important than my personal self."

Miss Garbo, referring to the every day activities of the film stars, said:

"I don't think the public attaches such really great importance to film stars. All the public goes to the cinemas for is to forget its troubles and seek illusions."

She said she did not even know if she would return to Hollywood and denied authorship of various articles alleged to be her "memories."

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

BEVERLY HILLS, Aug. 8. (To the Editor of The Register): Been telling you for a year what these Republicans would do with that market just in time to knock the poor inoffensive Democrats out of their hard-earned votes in November. Now they are all just a buying and selling among themselves. In stocks that haven't shown a cent of increased earning power that shows the thing is kinder "cockeyed." The earnings should come first and then the raise in price of the stock. Like everything that is prearranged it's being kinder overdone. As dumb as we are we know we can't get prosperous that quick. But one good thing about it all is that it might have a lasting result. But don't forget the original idea of it was to beat the poor old Democrats who never did anybody any harm in their lives.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

26 PERSONS INJURED IN ACCIDENTS

Fifteen Auto Mishaps Are Reported to California Highway Officials

CAR DRIVERS KILLED

Three Santa Ana Persons Seriously Hurt in Bad Accident at Oceanside

FOUR PERSONS came to violent death in Orange county over the weekend. Two were claimed in automobile accidents, one was a suicide and the other died of injuries received in an automobile accident here more than a week ago.

Auto crashes throughout the county over the week end were the heaviest of the year, according to reports made to the California Highway Patrol and other police bodies. There were 15 accidents reported, two killed and 26 persons injured in Orange county.

At the same time, three Santa Ana persons, and one person from Laguna Beach were all seriously injured in a head-on collision seven miles south of Oceanside shortly before midnight last night, in an accident that killed one woman and injured seven persons.

The drivers of two cars were killed last Saturday night on Highway No. 101, near Gallivan, this side of San Juan Capistrano in a head-on collision, and the occupant of one of the cars is today in the San Clemente hospital suffering from head injuries which may cost his life.

Doctor Killed

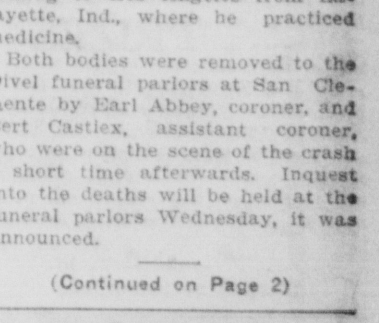

One of the cars, was driven by Dr. H. C. Blum, of the Stanley Emergency hospital, at El Monte. He died a short time after he was taken to the San Clemente hospital. A fracture of the skull was given as the cause of death. The driver of the other car was killed instantly. He was Sam Nakamura, a resident of San Diego county, residing near Vista, Nakamura was driving north at the time of the accident and Dr. Blum's car was travelling south, officers said.

In the car with Dr. Blum was Waldemar Kahner, of Monrovia, who was badly hurt. He is in the San Clemente hospital in a critical condition and may die.

Blum had been a resident of California for only about a year, coming to Los Angeles from Lafayette, Ind., where he practiced medicine.

Both bodies were removed to the Divil funeral parlors at San Clemente by Earl Abbey, coroner, and Bert Castles, assistant coroner, who were on the scene of the crash a short time afterwards. Inquest into the deaths will be held at the funeral parlors Wednesday, it was announced.

FOUR VIOLENT DEATHS OVER WEEKEND HERE

Further south on the same road, seven miles south of Oceanside, occurred one of the most disastrous auto crashes of the week end, when one woman was killed and seven other persons injured, all seriously.

Cars Meet Head-on
A car driven by Jack Schultz, 21, Santa Ana youth and occupied by three other Santa Ana persons, collided head-on with a machine driven by H. E. Harrington, of 5045 Sixty seventh street, San Diego, on a small rise in the road. Mrs. Harrington was killed instantly, Herbert and Mary Louise Harrington, children of the Harringtons were badly cut and bruised as was the husband and father and Harry Mowder, of the U. S. S. Beaver, whose car crashed into the wreckage of the other two machines.

In the Santa Ana machine were Schultz, Bruce Vegely, son of City Clerk Ed Vegely, of 1420 West Third street, Frances Parks, of West Fifth street, Santa Ana and Doris Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Goff, of Laguna Beach. Schultz suffered internal injuries and a possible puncture of the lungs, cuts and bruises and is in a critical condition. Young Vegely suffered a fracture of the skull, serious cuts and bruises and loss of a number of teeth. He was still unconscious this morning. Miss Parks received two broken ankles and cuts and bruises and Miss Goff was cut and bruised about the head and body.

To Join Son
No details concerning the crash were received here other than that the cars collided head-on, shortly before midnight. Mr. Vegely left here early today to be with his son.

The body of Mrs. Harrington was taken to the Berry funeral parlors at Oceanside, the owners of the parlors being a brother of the deceased.

George Smith, of 414 Fruit street, was reported slightly injured at 5 p. m. Sunday when the car in which he was riding collided with a car driven by W. D. Anderson, 67, of 602 East Sixth street.

An unidentified man was knocked down and slightly hurt at Chestnut and South Main streets at 5 p. m. Saturday by a car reported driven by Eca Mae McConnell, 52, of 1218 Orange avenue.

Four persons were hurt at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning when a tire on the left wheel of the car driven by Lee Riddle, of Riv-

In Oklahoma Rep. Swank, Dem., who has had his wife on his payroll, squeaked through by a handful of votes on a recount after the first favored his opponent, O. B. Motherhead, who stressed the family payroll issue.

In Texas, Rep. Williams, Dem., who has had relatives on both of his clerkships retired just before the primary in face of a bitter fight in which the nepotism issue was being pressed.

Rep. Christgau, Repn., Minn., who was defeated for renomination not only carried relatives on both of his payroll berths but listed his wife under her maiden name.

Congressmen defeated for renomination who have or recently have had relatives on the official payrolls are: Burdette, Repn., N. D.; Barton, Dem., Mo.; Childs, Repn., Ill.; Christgau, Repn., Minn.; Davis, Dem., Tenn.; Villen, Dem., Ind.; Goodwin, Repn., Minn.; Hall, Repn., S. D.; Kuntz, Dem., Ill.; Maas, Repn., Minn.; Magrady, Repn., Pa.; Nelson, Dem., Mo.; Romjue, Dem., Mo.; Norton, Dem., Neb.; Yon, Dem., Fla.

Congressmen retiring voluntarily who have or recently had relatives on the payroll are: Brian, Repn., O.; Clague, Repn., Minn.; Gilbert, Dem., Ky.; Larsen, Dem., Ga.; Wingo, Dem., Ark.; Williams, Dem., Texas; Wright, Dem., Ga.; Stull, Repn., Pa.

Mrs. B. L. Webb, of 1307 1-2 West Santa Barbara and Mr. and Mrs. Bustace were reported hurt. They were taken to the Santa Ana Valley hospital for first aid treatment.

The drivers of both cars were injured at 6 p. m. Saturday in an automobile accident on the Huntington Beach boulevard, a half mile north of the Talbot Road. The driver of one car was Bill Clifton, 22, of Huntington Beach and the driver of the other was Hatsuoku Matsumiya, 18, of Garden Grove. Neither was badly hurt.

In similar accidents at Laguna Beach yesterday, one little boy was seriously injured, while another escaped with slight cuts and bruises.

Sammy Cox, four years old, lies seriously injured at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cox, as the result of falling from a motor automobile in Laguna Canyon. He tried to stand up as the car rounded a curve and was thrown against the door. The door sprang open and the boy fell to the pavement, receiving a fracture of the skull and a broken shoulder blade. He was treated by Dr. A. H. Wightman, who says the lad has better than an even chance for recovery, although his condition is serious.

Riding With Parents
Jack Hatfield, 3½ years old, was riding with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hatfield, on Coast boulevard, Laguna. He was in the rear seat and in some manner the rear door flew open and he rolled into the street as the car was moving. He was taken to the office of Dr. Wightman, who found that no serious damage had been done.

Joe Stout, employed on the Price ranch at Bolsa, was slightly injured in an auto accident at Bolsa Sunday afternoon. Stout was taken to the Orange county hospital. He had suffered cuts and bruises of a minor character. The other auto in the collision was not badly damaged nor the occupants injured.

An auto driven by Mrs. Mary Ogle, of 201 West Columbia avenue, Wilmar City, collided with a car driven by Mrs. May L. Eyre, Route 1, Huntington Beach, at Seventeenth and Main streets about 9 o'clock Sunday morning. Three children of Mrs. Ogle were cut and bruised, one receiving a skull cut in the face from flying glass. The injured were treated by Dr. Ralph E. Hawes at the emergency hospital here and all were able to be taken to their homes.

Seriously injured when he was run down at Midway City at 8:30 o'clock on the night of July 30, Winfield Scott Smith, 77, of 207 Van Buren street, Midway City, died yesterday at the St. Joseph's hospital in Orange.

Struck by Auto
He was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Fred H. Foley, of 232 North Jackson street, Midway City, who reported that lights from a car coming from the opposite direction, blinded her, causing her to fall to the pedestrian.

The body was taken to the Harrell and Brown funeral parlors here where an inquest had been set by Coroner Earl Abbey for 8:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Dependent since the death of his wife in March of 1930, Thomas S. (Dad) McKay, well known oil driller, residing at Liberty Park, north of Huntington Beach, committed suicide at 8:15 p. m. Saturday by shooting himself in the right temple, after leaving a note in which he stated that "I will meet mother tonight."

The body was found by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hugh McKay, who heard the shot that ended his life.

McKay had been employed for years in the oil field here by the Texas oil company and a few years ago was retired on a pension. His son, Hugh McKay was residing with the father at the Liberty park home, but was not at home when the shooting occurred. Besides the relatives named, Mr. McKay leaves a daughter, Mrs. Joe Buster of Ventura.

The body was brought to the Dixon mortuary here in the Dixon ambulance. Coroner Earl Abbey will announce that he would not likely hold an inquest.

FARMERS STRIKE In Corn Belt of Iowa

DES MOINES, Aug. 8.—A farmers strike began in the corn belt today. The movement, perhaps the first of its kind, was strangely unlike the strikes of the labor unions. There was no picketing and no possibility of halting the agricultural industry, as trains and mines are tied up when a strike is called.

The cows kept right on giving milk; the hens laying eggs; and the fields were sprouting new ears of corn. The strike, to be effective, was dependent upon the farmers withholding their goods from the market for 30 days.

olds estate, with its scores of workmen, servants and caretakers, was at her command. As wife of Winston Salem's richest son and as a celebrity in her own right, she occupied the heights of glory here.

But today it was different. She was to return to a town which feels that whatever is the story of Smith Reynolds' death, she in some way, has a moral responsibility. She was a stranger, older than the gray youth she married; more experienced in the world for there seems to be a feeling that she should have protected and mothered the orphaned heir she married.

So when the curtain rises on the second act of her great tragedy, an audience not entirely waiting to applaud, will greet her.

Over at the little town of Wentworth, 40 miles away, county seat of an adjoining county, court is in session, and there Libby may make her first plea for liberty.

Elaborate preparations for Libby's defense are being made. Her attorneys were equipped with the certificates of physicians setting forth that she is an expectant mother. They planned to show that doctors believe she is suffering from severe shock.

Mrs. Carrie Griggs and son Harry from Salinas, N. J., are on their way to visit W. A. Culp and family of Brea. Mrs. Griggs is Mr. Culp's sister. The son will attend the Olympics on his arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Andrew, Madrona street, Brea are entertaining this week Mrs. May Williams from Gardiner, Kansas. Mrs. Andrew's sister, also another sister from Santa Ana, and Mr. and Mrs. Bishop of San Diego, Mr. Bishop is an ex-revenue officer.

BREA
BREA, August 8.—The Red and White store, J. D. Wakeham, proprietor, Brea, will move from its present location on Pomona avenue to the store formerly occupied by Harry Massey near the Oldfield National Bank.

MARY BRADFORD CALLED BY DEATH

Miss Mary Bradford, 41, passed away at her home, 334 Normandy street, late yesterday. She had been a resident of Santa Ana for the past 15 months.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Bradford of Santa Ana; three brothers, Richard A. Bradford, proprietor of a local shoe store, and Julian W. Bradford, also of Santa Ana, and James M. Bradford, of Seattle, Washington; and two sisters, Mrs. Frances Guiley, of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Bradley T. Fowlkes, of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The body is to be forwarded from the Winbiger Funeral home here to Seattle, Washington, the former home of the family, where services will be held and interment made.

A WORD OF COMFORT

The best that is latent within you will be stifled if you permit devotion to petty aims to encrust your heart. With God's help you must learn to undertake your tasks and to fulfill them for love of Him.

The ploughshare of grief cuts deep but the flowers of faith and love, when watered with tears, grow strong enough to weather any storm.

In your hardest hours remember that you are on the road to an eternity of joyous service and enduring companionship.

SMITH—August 7, 1932, in Santa Ana, Winfield Scott Smith, age 77 years. He is survived by his brother, Delano Smith, of Camp Point, Ill. Announcement of funeral later by Harrell and Brown, 116 West Seventh street.

Stockton, of this city, and Mrs. Minnie A. Johnston, of Hawthorne, Cal. Services are to be held from the Church of Christ, corner of Broadway and Walnut streets, Wednesday, August 10, at 2 p. m. James H. Sewell, minister, officiating. Winblier's funeral home directors. Interment in Santa Ana cemetery.

WILL DISCUSS PLAN TO MAKE ONE-THIRD CUT

Methods by which taxes throughout the county may be reduced 33 1/3 per cent will be the subject for consideration at a meeting of secretaries of the chambers of commerce in the county which is to be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the offices of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce.

Plans by which this tax reduction, which is even larger than the 25 per cent cut which has been demanded by the Orange County Civic league, may be attained, have been suggested and will be considered by the chamber of commerce men, according to George Rayner, secretary of the Santa Ana chamber.

Other matters which are scheduled to come before the group for consideration tonight include county advertising and plans for the annual excursion, under auspices of the Associated Chambers of Commerce. Chief interest, however, will center in the plan for reducing taxes.

The advertising proposition calls for advertising the county over radio station KREG at no cost to the county. The excursion is an annual affair, which has attracted large attendance in the past. Two years ago the excursion was made on a special train to Mexico City. Such a lengthy trip is not contemplated this year, Rayner said today.

DEMOCRATS OF COUNTY PLAN BIG CAMPAIGN

Paul Witmer, mayor of Santa Ana, was unanimously selected as Orange county chairman for the Roosevelt-Garner club of the county, organized at an enthusiastic meeting of leading Democrats held at San Clemente Saturday night.

The meeting, called by Hamilton H. Cotton, leading member of the party in the county, was held at Travaglini's cafe, and those who attended were Cotton's guests.

The Democrats decided to divide the county up into three sections, to organize in every precinct and to have workers in all precincts in the county before the primaries in August. Most of the city and precinct leaders were named by the leaders Saturday night, but the list was withheld for the time being pending its completion.

Democratic candidates for office also were present at the meeting to offer suggestions as to how the campaign should be waged. All made short talks. They included D. G. Wettlin of Orange, candidate for state senator; B. Z. McKinney, Santa Ana, candidate for congress; Robert Ramsey, Anaheim, candidate for assemblyman from the north end of the county, and Frank Harwood, candidate for the assembly from the south portion of the county.

The meeting went on record as including the campaign of William Gibbs McAdoo for senator in its activities.

Chairman Paul Witmer said today that he would be able to name all the city and community leaders for the club within the next few days. He said that it is planned to have at least 800 workers at the polls during the primaries and that this number will be increased before the final election in November.

FULLERTON PASTOR TO SPEAK ON KREG

The Rev. E. Dow Hoffman of the Fullerton Methodist church will speak over KREG at 9 a. m. Tuesday, as guest speaker of the Fullerton W. C. T. U.

After his speech at the radio station he will speak at the regular meeting of the Fullerton union at Hillcrest park, Fullerton. The meeting will open at 10 a. m. and a covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Most of the sunflower seed and oil used in the United States come from Russia, the Ukraine and Rumania.

News Behind the News

WASHINGTON
By Paul Mallon

RAPIDAN
Secretary of Navy Adams did not tell all about the marine and President Hoover's camp. His letter to Congressman Rainey was largely a Republican campaign document.

Among the things he neglected to say are:
A detail of more than 100 marines is on duty at the camp more than half of the year. They stand guard in a cordon around it 24 hours a day. Their hours are two on and four off duty.

A dozen saddle horses from the marine and army stables are used by the President and his guests. Both he and Mrs. Hoover have favorite horses. The President rides infrequently and poorly. Mrs. Hoover rides often and well.

Filipino mess boys from the navy attend to the wants of President and guests.
Marine officers' lips are sealed to such an extent they refuse to tell newspaper men the time of day or the weather.

If Secretary Adams had desired to tell more inside stuff about the camp he would have said: The fishing is rotten. Mr. Hoover slides over rocks in pools not more than five feet across and a foot deep. His catch is limited only to the number put into the bathtub stream by the Bureau of Fisheries.

The food is good. It is generally prepared in advance at the White House and taken 100 miles to camp in especially designed delivery trucks.

The scenery around about is beautiful but none of it can be seen from the camp. The setting is in a hollow so dense with trees that even the sky is obliterated.

Rainey was looking for campaign material when he sent his letter. The road he was complaining about was built more than a year ago by the marines.

It was wasting his time to inquire into the matter. The camp is so secluded and so well protected as a private retreat for the President that the entire Republican party could hold a convention there and no one would be the wiser.

The only newspaper observers are housed 30 miles away by road and 12 by air line. All they can learn about what goes on at the camp is what the press secretary gives them over the telephone.

VOTERS

P. T. Barnum would have starved to death in this day and age, they say here now. Returning politicians complain the people out in the country can no longer be fooled on public issues. They are reading more about government, taxes, debts and intricate fiscal policies than they ever did. They seem to know more about what is going on in high places and ask their statesmen intelligent and pointed questions. That's a shame.

The Democrats are privately trying out something new in campaign machinery.
The country has been divided into districts. Each district will be represented by a special Roosevelt-Garner committee separate from the Democratic National committee. Local leaders will compose it. For instance the Illinois committee is slated to be Senator Lewis, Mayor Cermak and two others.

These district committees will have full authority within their districts. They will decide how best to meet Republican attacks, who should speak, how, when and where.

They will deal with the centralized Roosevelt headquarters in New York. The duty of headquarters will be to answer the wants or the district committees and direct the national trend of the campaign. In this way it will be easy to soft-pedal some policies in some districts while pushing the policies which will be most effective in others.

It sounds good and may turn out that way—if there are no fights between the district committees and headquarters. And it will prepare the way for decentralizing government—the Roosevelt plan for cutting costs.

NOTES

There is at least one marine who likes duty at the President's camp.
He fell in love with the mountain school teacher.
Mark Sullivan, the writer, has been helping Mr. Hoover with his acceptance speech.
Some of the best phrases in the Republican platform were also his.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin
FEDERAL RESERVE
Patient optimists have been hanging around the Federal Reserve Bank of New York all week in the hope of signing for one of the loans now authorized to be made to individuals and corporations.

Most of them neglected to read the rules before they came in. A high official of the Reserve Bank says that the bank expects to do practically no private lending in the city although there may be a few eligible applications from upstate.

Local commercial banks agree with this view. They say that anybody who has collateral good enough for the Federal Reserve would have no trouble whatever in getting a loan from them.

BANKS
New York banks—with the exception of the Chase—continue to decline the privilege of issuing more national bank notes. An officer of a large bank which used to issue notes stated that the greatest trouble they had with the notes was to keep them in circulation. Things finally go so they would send them to Cuba and California to keep them from coming back for redemption too soon.

Bank stocks have been putting on a very pretty display of fireworks of their own in the past two weeks. They have shown gains above those in the general stock market. Chase, National City, Brooklyn Trust and Empire Trust have been conspicuous in the improvement of their stock prices.

If write-offs of defunct assets and reserves for contingencies are disregarded, the first six months' actual earnings of twenty large New York banks this year equalled or bettered those of a year ago. They showed earnings of 4.3 per cent on their capital for the first six months of 1932 as against 8.1 per cent for the whole of 1931. Higher interest rates for the first part of this year are largely responsible.

Reports of organized attempts to start bank runs in the middle West find little echo here. A few malicious rumors were spread about New York banks in December of 1931 but nothing whatever has been heard of them for some months.

UTILITIES

Refunding operations for the three western inland operating companies have been skillfully handled. The banks themselves temporarily covered the requirements on August first maturities. The implication to the public is that they consider the companies sound. One thing is certain. Actual offerings of the refunding issues will not be made unless and until the sponsors are sure they will go over without a hitch.

KREUGER

The battle behind the scenes between the two committees for possession of Kreuger and Toll debentures has been active and bitter. The Independent Committee has made a better showing than the bankers' committee expected. Further law suits seem to be in the offing. Holders of thousand dollar Kreuger & Toll debentures may get a payment of between $19 and $20 on the first of September.

ATHLETES OF OLYMPICS AT ART RECEPTION

Many Olympic athletes and nearly 500 guests attended the Olympic tea and reception held at the Laguna Art Gallery yesterday which was arranged by Mrs. Sumner Crosby, Laguna Beach Olympic hostess, and her committee.

Mrs. Hel Rider was chairman of the afternoon and among those who assisted were Mrs. James A. Irons, Mrs. William S. Daniels, Mrs. John Hinchman, Mrs. Edna Montgomery and Mrs. Ella June La Pierre, assisted by a group of young girls.

Introduction of guests to the many noted artists present was made by Wesley F. Kimmel and Dr. Spencer Miller, who acted as hosts.

Paintings of the annual August show were hung in the art gallery, which was beautifully decorated in Olympic colors and with flowers from famous gardens at Laguna.

The annual Laguna Art association medal was won this year by Mrs. Eleanor Colburn for her painting, "Bathing Baby." Mrs. Colburn and her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Peabody, received the two high votes in the first ballot, the latter for her painting, "Marigolds." On the second ballot the mother was declared the winner, and was congratulated by Mrs. Peabody.

PRICES SHOW DEPRESSION IS PAST LOW POINT

Asserting that stock market prices at present indicate that the depression has reached its lowest point, Loyal K. King spoke to members of the Open Forum class at the First Methodist church yesterday morning on the question of the stock market and the depression.

He said in part:
"The present stock market prices, it appears to me are an indication that this depression has already passed through its lowest point. The bases for this statement which I shall enumerate later are, political, economic, and psychological."

Government Sound
"To begin with our well-being is dependent upon the stability of the governments of other countries."

Better Prices
"The effect of all of this legislation is to provide credit for worthy enterprises, and to provide funds so that those who still have their homes may be helped, and enabled to keep them."

"The trouble during the last few years has been that everything has been depreciating in value, which is just another way of saying that everything was a poor buy because it could be bought for less if the buyer had the patience to wait."

"The object of all of the above mentioned legislation is to enable the holder of property to keep it. It means that unless he desires to sell he need not do so. If this legislation is successful, a great deal of property that is now for sale will be withdrawn from the market; the fact that less is offered will result in better prices for that which is offered."

Currency Sound
"Fundamentally the currency system of this country is sound. The greatest test of its soundness; the greatest test ever imposed upon any currency system has just been concluded. European governments, by what amounted to almost concerted effort, withdrew all the gold they had on deposit in this country. In addition private European investors, suffering from financial fright, threw overboard millions upon millions of their American investments, taking whatever they could get, and withdrew their balances in gold. Our currency system withstood this tremendous and rapid liquidation. Europe has her gold, the people of this country forced to buy their own securities did so at their own prices. The result of it all is that once we recover from our dizzy spell we will be better off than we ever dreamed."

"Prices however will not immediately go back to the good old days of 1929. Some businesses are too weak to survive. Others are financially worse off than statements so far made public would indicate."

"Many stocks have already advanced in price. This is not due to any increase in their earning powers. They merely reflect the optimism and confidence of the speculator in the future of this country. It should be remembered that an investor is a person who buys because he is satisfied with the earnings of the investment, and a speculator buys because he foresees a turn in the market."

BIG REVUE TO BE STAGED AT H. S. TOMORROW

A supply of tickets for the Metro Hi-Jinks Benefit show at the high school tomorrow night will be available at the doors on the evening of the performance, officials in charge said today.

The Hi-Jinks is to be a variety revue of four acts of diversified vaudeville, consisting of amateur or professional talent. It will require approximately three hours for the presentation of the revue, officials in charge assert.

The Metro Studio of Dancing, of this city, is directing and staging the revue, with Emmett Osborne, dramatic director of the studios in charge. Proceeds of the benefit performance with the exception of necessary advertising and production expenditures will go to the Unemployed association of Santa Ana.

Sol Gonzales and his Spanish orchestra and entertainers, who won sweepstakes prize at the Tournament of Lights last month, will be seen and heard in a half hour, or more, of typical Spanish music and dancing.

In addition to several members of the Unemployed association who are canvassing the downtown section for the sale of the Hi-Jinks tickets, several stores in the city are also handling them. The following addresses have the tickets: 208 West Fourth street, 414 North Broadway, northwest corner Main and Fifth, 302 North Main street, and 214 East Fourth street.

Members of the Unemployed association, and others who were chosen to distribute the tickets, were asked to report today to A. D. Comito, at 214 Lutz building.

OUT FOR AIR RECORD

BALTIMORE, Md. — Stewart Dietz, Baltimore aviator, is out to set an endurance record of more than 800 hours over the city which, if accomplished, will break the existing endurance record by about 153 hours. The flight will be staged some time between July 15 and Sept. 1. Robert L. Benson will be Dietz's partner on the flight.

PERFORM AT BENEFIT REVUE

Young entertainers who will take part in the Hi-Jinks revue at the high school tomorrow night are pictured below. They are: (Left to right) Marguerite Alvord, petite dancer; Thelma Trickey, acrobatic artist whose solo will include a balancing act with a glass of water and a lighted candle (center); and Junior Kavanaugh, dancer and singer, who will be featured in an act with Betty Blossom Goble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goble.

GETS JAIL TERM ON SPEED COUNT

Charged with speeding 61 miles an hour in a 45-mile zone on the Santa Ana boulevard on July 31, Don H. Wilson, of Alhambra, pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Kenneth Morrison this morning and was sentenced to serve five days in the Orange county jail.

Justice Morrison allowed Wilson until August 15 to start serving his sentence. He was arrested by State Officer Ben L. Craig. Edgar F. Keksel, of Pomona, charged with reckless driving, pleaded guilty and time for the pronouncement of judgment was set for August 12. He also was arrested on Santa Ana Boulevard.

INTERRED HERE

Mrs. Perry Barker, former resident of Santa Ana, where she was an active member of the First Christian church, who died at her home in Vista last week, was buried at Fairhaven cemetery here Saturday.

ARREST FOUR AS VIOLATORS OF LIQUOR LAW

One man was charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and four other persons were taken into custody on drunk charges by the Santa Ana police department over the week end. All were lodged in the county jail.

Elmer J. Devey, 23, salesman, of 400 Rodeo drive, Hollywood, was arrested on Santa Ana boulevard by Officers W. H. Heard and H. H. Barnard after a long chase. It was reported, He was said to have been driving through heavy traffic at a high rate of speed.

In the car with Devey was Harry K. Maloney, 23, of Los Angeles who was charged with being drunk.

Police were called to the home of Warren T. House, 55, carpenter of 715 Mortimer street, Saturday night when it was reported he was drunk. They left there without arresting House, but soon afterwards he came to the police station to find out why the police had come to his home. Then he was arrested and lodged in the county jail.

C. W. Campbell, Santa Ana, was arrested at Eighth and Van Ness streets Saturday night on a drunk charge. Police were attracted to the scene when Campbell's automobile caught on fire. The fire department extinguished the blaze.

MAKES STATEMENT ON BEACH OFFER

A. Cavalli, manager of the merchants division of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce today made the following statement in connection with the recent report that he had been offered the post as secretary of the Laguna Beach Chamber of Commerce:

"I have not accepted the position tendered by the Laguna Beach Chamber of Commerce as secretary-treasurer. On June 1 I applied for this post, prior to the merchants of Santa Ana engaging me, and my application was on record with the Laguna Beach chamber. I was very much interested at the time, because I was seeking a connection in Southern California" but now that I have organized the merchants division here and gained the support of the leading business men, I see no reason why I should make a change.

"There is much work ahead for the Merchants' Division and I must give my best efforts in this endeavor.

"I feel highly honored that the Laguna Beach Chamber of Commerce should decide to employ me as their secretary-treasurer and I regret deeply that I cannot serve this wonderful community now. I still say that Laguna has one of the greatest possibilities of any city along the coast, possibly when I am through with this work, the Laguna Beach chamber may still consider me, but right now I have my hands full for some time to come and must carry on."

MAN GOES TO SAN QUENTIN FOR BURGLARY

One man was denied probation and sent to San Quentin, two entered pleas of not guilty to felonies, and demanded jury trials while another pleaded guilty to forgery and asked probation, during the session of criminal court Friday.

Superior Judge James L. Allen refused Francisco Casillas probation and sentenced him to San Quentin on a second degree burglary conviction that resulted from a robbery of a store at Los Alamitos.

G. W. McAdoo plead not guilty to a charge of burglary in connection with the Smart and Final Wholesale grocery robbery and demanded a jury trial. He will have his hearing September 13.

Andy Klous denied possession of a still and also demanded a jury trial which was set for August 13.

Ned Renick, plead guilty to forgery and entered a plea for probation. His probation hearing was set for next Friday.

Superior Judge To Address Club

Judge H. G. Ames, of the Orange county superior court, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Santa Ana Twenty-Third club which will be held at Ketter's cafe at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night. GILMORE RED LION

THE NEW SPEEDWAY PERFECTED GASOLINE

ROAR with GILMORE

Gilmore RED LION Gasoline has been developed for you by a year of gruelling tests on the Speedways, to give you the thrilling race car performance you expect from premium gasoline. It is a multi-power gasoline that combines in perfect balance the full efficiency of High Octanes, High Gravity, Distillation, Boiling Points, etc. — yet it costs you nothing extra.

More crude oil is required to produce a gallon of Gilmore

RED LION than to make a gallon of ordinary motor fuel. The loud knocking, hard starting, sluggish distillates and low grade fractions that are usually allowed to go into gasolines are completely eliminated from this new gasoline. This is the more costly method of refining, but other refiners will follow Gilmore again, sooner or later.

...and Ladies!... You'll appreciate the absence of disagreeable gasoline odors when you drive with this new Gilmore.

ENFORCEMENT OF STANDARDS ON EGGS BEGINS

As a part of a statewide campaign, H. Seymour Jones, a representative of the state department of public health was here Friday instructing local egg distributors, producers and dealers regarding the provisions of the California egg standardization law. City and county health officials are assisting in this work and as soon as a brief educational program, including the distribution of 1000 copies of an explanatory digest of the law, is completed, a rigid campaign of enforcement will be conducted.

The purpose of this law is to provide a standard by which the consumer may buy eggs and be certain of their quality and size. Poultry men throughout the entire state have expressed the opinion that this law will stabilize the market and put an end to unfair practices that have demoralized the industry, it is said.

Terms such as specials, extras and standards have been defined as quality specifications, and weight specifications are quoted for the use of such terms as large, medium and small in designating the size of eggs, Jones explained. "Thus, a housewife will know that when she buys 'large specials' she is getting eggs of the highest grade both as to quality and size. If, however, she buys 'medium specials' she will receive eggs of the highest quality but of a smaller size. Under the law all eggs sold to a consumer must be properly labeled as to size and quality by placard or otherwise, and terms such as 'ranch eggs,' 'farm eggs,' etc., may not be used unless the eggs are of the grade of 'large extras' or better. These requirements apply to roadside stands as well as to grocers and markets and all violations will be referred to the district attorney for prosecution."

STREET LIGHT COSTS MAY BE TRANSFERRED

A plan to establish special assessment districts for the maintaining of street lighting, thereby transferring to the property owners who have the standards in their district, the costs of maintenance, has been discussed with the city council and is now in the hands of the California Taxpayers' association for their opinion.

DeVitt Dudley, city engineer, who first suggested the plan, today received a letter from Harold A. Stone, of the League, together with a report of such districts now maintained in Los Angeles. There are 635 special assessment districts in Los Angeles paying for lights.

Stone suggested in his letter that if such a plan was adopted here that the districts be made as large as possible, so as to keep down the necessary overhead expense of the districts.

PIONEER PASSES

John G. Blaylock, below, pioneer resident of the county, died yesterday at his home in Santa Ana after an illness of several months. He was a successful celery grower when active, but had been retired for several years.

J. G. BLAYLOCK ORANGE COUNTY PIONEER, DIES

With the death of John G. Blaylock, 74, who passed away yesterday at his home at 113 South Broadway, Orange county loses one of the pioneer farmers of this vicinity. Mr. Blaylock has been ill for several months. Funeral services are to be conducted from the Church of Christ at the corner of Broadway and Walnut streets, Wednesday at 2 p.m., with the Rev. James Sewell, officiating. The Winbiger funeral establishment is in charge of the services. Interment will be made in the Santa Ana cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Blaylock are a brother, Louis B. Hadley of Lodi, Calif., and three sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Little and Mrs. Coner A. Stockton, of this city, and Mrs. Minnie A. Johnston of Hawthorne, Calif. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Mr. Blaylock was born in Arkansas May 14, 1858, and came to Orange county in the fall of 1892, settling three miles west of Westminster in what was known at that time as the "peachlands." In 1903, following experiments in celery raising by D. G. Smeltzer, Mr. Blaylock began growing celery in that region and became one of the most prominent celery growers in the state. He continued raising celery here for a period of eight years with the exception of one year which he spent in the Klondike. He often shipped 30 cars of celery at one time.

After a mysterious blight attacked the celery here, Mr. Blaylock went to the Island country near Stockton where he engaged in celery raising. At one time he had 158 acres under cultivation.

One year of his life Mr. Blaylock spent in mining in Lower California and the year he spent in the Klondike he encountered many hardships and spent seven days in making 50 miles along the trail to Stewart. He was one of the gold seekers who went down the White Horse Rapids.

While near Stockton, Mr. Blaylock accepted a position with the Jersey Island Celery company, clearing $30,000 for them in one year. After this he was with the Goodell and Mitchell commission merchants of San Francisco producing celery from them for three years. In 1911 he incorporated the Jersey Island Celery company, occupying the position of vice president for three years. He returned to Orange county in 1924.

BIBLE LITERATURE TO BE DISCUSSED

"Wisdom of the Old Testament" will be discussed at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, by Dr. Thomas S. Blair. This is the second in a series of lectures on the Wisdom literature of the Bible, given by Dr. Blair at the Y. M. C. A. In his first discussion two weeks ago, he took up the earlier examples of such writings and gave a careful study of the origin of the poetical and ethical literature such as is found in the books of Psalms and Proverbs.

Tomorrow evening, he will present the best information available about the book of Job, Ecclesiastes and some of the apocryphal books, such as the wisdom of Solomon and others. All men and women who are interested in learning more about this historical and literary background of these Old Testament writings are invited to hear Dr. Blair, in the Y. M. C. A. lobby, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

WHOLE NEW FACE
EVANSVILLE, Charles Richardson is a courageous lad, and that's the reason physicians here are going to such pains to put a new face on him. Last winter Charles was badly burned in a bus crash in Kentucky. Since then he has been constantly in the hands of surgeons. They have lengthened the muscles in his neck, cut his eyelids, badly drawn by the burns, to allow them to resume shape, and have "ironed out" his right ear, which was curled by the fire.

DENY REQUESTS FOR BRANCHES OF POSTOFFICE

Applications of three Santa Ana merchants for contract, or sub-postoffice, stations have been denied by the postoffice department, according to information received this morning by T. E. Stephenson, postmaster.

Stephenson received a letter from the first assistant postmaster in Washington in which he was informed that the establishment of a contract station in Santa Ana is not warranted.

The first assistant postmaster declared that the department would not be warranted in such a move because of the close proximity of the proposed units to the post office. He declared it is not too much to expect the patrons to walk six or seven blocks to the postoffice.

The request for three substations was made by Postmaster Stephenson on July 26 after bids had been submitted by the DuBois Furniture company, Third and Sycamore; Grand Central Market and Stein's Stationery store, 397 West Fourth street.

BLACKBURN SPEAKS TO FARM LEADERS

Painting a word picture of strenuous efforts being made to bring the agricultural industry in California back to prosperity, R. W. Blackburn, president of the California Farm Bureau Federation, was the principal speaker here at a recent dinner of the officers and directors of the Orange County Farm Bureau, at Ketter's cafe.

Blackburn told of the losses faced by farmers in this state and of efforts being made to reduce operation costs. He also told of the reduction of labor costs from 40 cents per hour in 1930 to 15 cents an hour in 1932.

As one move to return the agricultural industry to a former footing the public utilities were asked for a voluntary reduction in agricultural power rates. They declared they were unable to do this for agriculture unless other industries received the same treatment.

The state Farm Bureau, he said, appointed a committee of five members to meet with representatives of the public utilities and asked for a 20 per cent reduction in power rates. In some sections the farmers are unable to pay their power bills and in some cases the power companies have declared moratoriums on their bills.

RECALLS SALE OF HOPS FOR $16,000

Attention was directed today by W. C. Jerome, former county auditor and well known business man, to an article appearing in the August number of "Grizzly Bear," publication of the Native Sons of the Golden West.

The article recalled the sale 50 years ago of hops, from the 40 acre hop yard of J. B. Raine, for a price of $16,000, of which $11,000 was net profit. "Raine's hop yard was located south of McFadden street between Santa Ana and Tustin," Jerome said in recalling the place where the crop was raised. "Raine used to go to New York to sell his crop, which was a money maker in those days."

Gillette Patents Are Held Valid

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 8.—Every manufacturer and seller of unlicensed slotted blades made to fit Gillette safety razors is liable to suit for damages following a sweeping Federal court decision sustaining the validity of the Gillette patents. In suit for infringement of patents and damages, brought in United States district court, District of Connecticut, against Hawley Hardware company of Bridgeport, Conn., wholesaler of blades manufactured by the Clark Blade and Razor company of Newark, N. J., Judge Edwin S. Thomas found the nominal defendant, the seller, and the actual defendant, the manufacturer, guilty and liable for costs and damages.

"BE TOMBOY" IS DIDRIKSON'S ADVICE TO GIRLS WHO WANT TO BE EFFICIENT IN SPORTS

BY MILDRED DIDRIKSON
(As Told to Frank G. Menke, I.N.S. Sports Editor)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(INS)—"Polke say that I go about winning these athletic games because I have this co-operation thing that had to do with eye, mind and muscle. That is sure a powerful lot of language to use about a girl from Texas, but maybe they are right about it. I wouldn't know. All I know is that I can run and I jump and I can toss things and when they fire a gun or tell me to get busy I just say to myself:

"Well, kid, here's where you've got to win another."

Doing these things comes easy to me. If you were to ask me just what I couldn't do in athletics I would not be able to answer because I have done everything I've heard about and, if there's anything I have not tried, I will sure be taking a shot at it as soon as I get around to it.

New Sports Excite Her

Every time I hear about a new kind of sport I get all excited. I want to see what I can do about it. Say, down in Texas we don't get any first class outdoor skating like they have in the northern countries and when I was a little girl I never did any skating. But I kept reading about girls that did ice skating and when I finally got into a town where they had a rink, I went there and hired myself a pair of skates and away I went.

Everybody is supposed to do a few flips before they can get around on these runners, but, gee, heck, I never did anything like that. I just got up and I skated. How I kept my balance I don't know. But I did. And before I got through skating around that ice I was chasing some good skaters pretty close.

I kept hearing a lot about golf. Last spring I thought I would like to try the game. So I watched some people driving from the tee and I watched some fellows putting and the next day I borrowed a set of clubs and I went out and golfed. The first time I was over 100 but pretty soon I was in the 90's. Up to the present I have had only one time to play 10 rounds of golf, but the last time I shot 82 for 18 holes and the time before it was 83 on a 76-par course for men.

Shooting? Now, You're Talking!
What? Ride a horse and shoot a gun? You asking me that—and I'm from Texas where we are born on horseback and they give us guns to play with instead of

FULLERTON SHADES RICHFIELD, 9 TO 8 ANAHEIM'S JUNIORS DEFEAT S. A. AT NET

Fullerton was one-up on Richfield today in their playoff for the baseball championship of the Orange County Summer league, having won the first of a two-out-of-three game series at Richfield yesterday, 9 to 8.

Errors and pitcher "Lefty" Parra's extreme wildness lost the decision for the first half championships who scored twice in the ninth and had a tying run on base before Rangel grounded out, getting his bat in the way while ducking a wild pitch.

Parra, Richfield pitcher, hit a triple and two doubles and was walked twice purposely.

Victories in first and second singles constituted the only matches the Santa Ana Tennis club's juniors could muster in a tournament with the Anaheim Tennis club's juniors Saturday. George Young, Santa Ana, won first singles in straight sets and Milford Carman duplicated his success in second singles, but the other Santa Anas were all defeated. Summary:

Singles: G. Young (SA) def. C. Beck (A), 7-5, 6-1.
M. Carman (SA) def. A. Grey (A), 6-2, 6-2.
Hedges (A) def. R. Bradley (SA), 4-6, 6-1, 8-6.
R. Beck (A) def. W. Jordan (SA), 6-3, 6-2.
Morgan (A) def. W. Flood (SA), 4-6, 6-1, 6-2.
Morgan (A) def. H. Evans (SA), 6-1, 6-0.
Doubles: Beck and Grey (A), def. Young and Carman (SA), 6-1, 6-2.
Hedges and Stark (A), def. Bradley and Jordan (SA) default.
Beck and Morgan (A), def. H. Evans and Jacobs (SA), 6-4, 6-2.
Another tournament is scheduled for the Santa Ana junior team Saturday, Aug. 20, with a local Boy Scout team.

RIGBY, WILCOX MEET TONIGHT AT COURTHOUSE

Santa Ana and Anaheim baseball magnates go into executive session here tonight to work out details of their "little world series" for the 1932 National Night league championship.

The gathering will be held at the Orange county courthouse at 7:30 o'clock, with President George Peterkin in the chair.

Although two games remain on the second half schedule, including the "natural" at the Bowl tomorrow between Santa Ana and Anaheim, the latter team has already clinched the last lap and is in position to transact serious business.

John Wilcox and K. B. Rigby, business managers of the two clubs, will work out plans for the playoff games. It is understood the teams will play a three-out-of-five series, with the survivor facing the champion of the American Night league for the 1932 Southern California title.

Monday night, August 15, has been set as a possible series "opening night," with games following Wednesday and Friday until completed.

The playoff will be of interest all over the National league wheel this year because the first five teams in seasonal percentages are to figure in the gate receipts.

RAY SHELL, IMPROVED, NOW AT OLIVE HOME

National Night league baseball men breathed easier today with the removal to his home of Ray Shell, Olive outfielder, and announcement that his injuries, suffered in a Santa Ana-Olive game last Friday, were not as serious as at first feared.

X-ray pictures disclosed that Shell's skull was not fractured in the collision with "Chisel" Hatfield, Olive's second baseman, while they were pursuing a Texas leaguer, hit over second base by "Benny" Wilcox of Santa Ana. A lacerated ear and shoulder bruises seem to be giving Shell the most pain today.

Hatfield was up and about today although still shaky from the crash which terminated the ball game in the fourth inning. Hatfield sustained severe wounds about the head.

Friends and relatives today issued statements for the players, voicing their appreciation of the sportsmanship of the fans and especially the Santa Ana players, who sent flowers to the hospital room.

Turning into the seventh and concluding week of their spirited struggle for the second half championship, Santa Ana City League baseball managers will assemble at the bowl at 6:30 o'clock tonight for a meeting of considerable importance. President Kenneth Morrison and Secretary Lloyd Banks announced today.

Plans for an impending playoff series between first and second half winners will be discussed, it is understood.

Two games are on the City schedule tonight: Red and White Stars vs. South Methodists, 7 p. m.; MacMillan Gasoline vs. First National bank, 8 p. m.

EAST FINALLY ADMITS SUCCESS OF GREAT OLYMPIC GAMES PROMOTED BY WEST

By BILL CORUM
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—(INS)—The Olympic Games in Los Angeles are in their second and last week, apparently the best and best conducted set of games ever held in the history of sport.

The wondrous state of California and the great city of Los Angeles are to be congratulated on the manner in which they have played host to an army of athletes and visitors from all corners of the world. Even the sunshine and the foliage seem to have lived up to the specifications made in the original prospectus. If there has been a cloud the size of a small baby's hand in the sky we have not heard about it back here in the east.

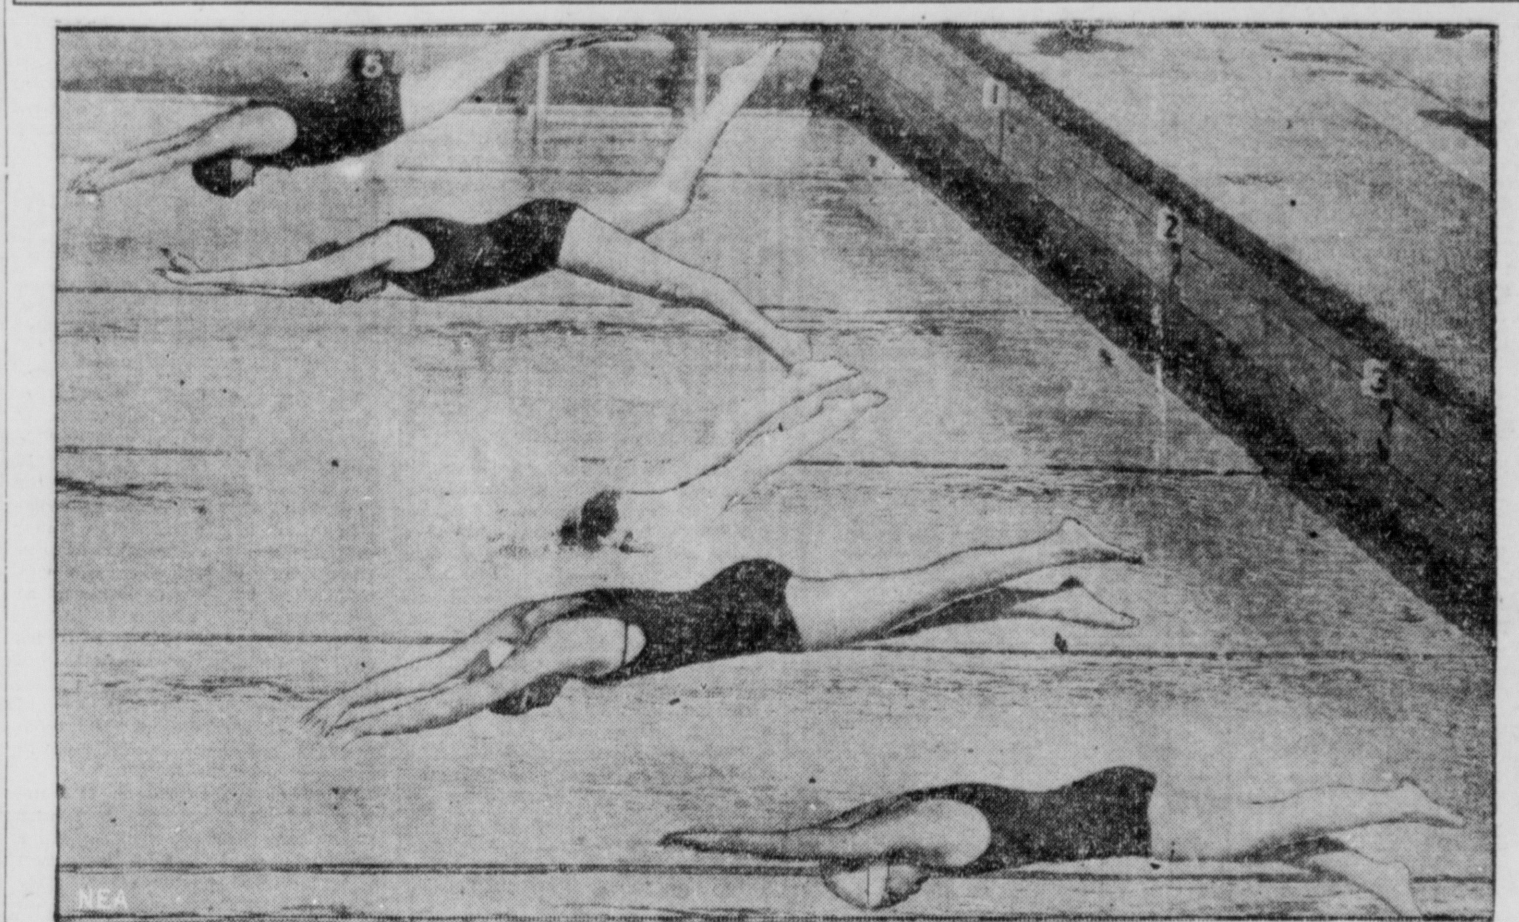

Only the Finns, I believe, are dissatisfied and it appears from all reports as if they went out there intent on becoming dissatisfied or dying in the attempt.

But, except from the standpoint of the Finns, the Olympics so far seem to have been an unqualified success. There have been times when the Pacific Coast's major athletic games and carnivals have been more pomp and pageantry than fact. I refer to those big

SWIMMING EVENTS STEAL OLYMPIC SPOTLIGHT FROM TRACK

Track and field athletics completed, the attention of Olympic Games followers will be riveted this week on swimming, rowing and diversified sports. Here's a striking picture of Helene Madison, world's champion swimmer of Seattle, and other noted mermaids starting the third heat of the 100-meter free style trials. Miss Madison negotiates the distance in 1 minute 8.9 seconds. However, in the very next heat Eleanor Saville, of San Francisco, beat her time by 4-10 of a second. 'BIG THREE' OF EAST, WEST IN FOOTBALL GAME

LOS ANGELES, August 8.—Strong, traditional athletic rivalry between Southern California, Stanford and California will be forgotten tonight as former gridiron stars from each university band together in the Olympic night football game at 8 o'clock to meet a team made up of Yale, Harvard and Princeton men.

All players in the game will be men who wound up their varsity careers for their respective alma maters last fall.

Rivalry between coaching staffs of the "Big Three" of California and between the "Big Three" of the Atlantic Coast will also be forgotten as the teams meet in a real game that both demonstrates American football for foreign visitors at the Olympic Games and gives oldtime gridiron fans another great game with a sectional background.

To fans accustomed to seeing Trojan, Indian and Bear rivals battling against each other in the Olympic Stadium, the spectacle of Pete Heiser, Stanford running guard, and George Watkins, California quarterback, running interference for Gus Shaver, Southern California fullback, will be a sight to see.

EVELYN FURTSCH HELPS U. S. WIN WORLD TITLE IN RELAY

Recompense for her misfortunes earlier in the Olympic campaign, Evelyn Furtusch, Tustin's great little schoolgirl sprinter, was today a member of the world's champion women's relay team, conqueror of the universe in the 1932 Olympic Games.

Miss Furtusch ran the second lap for the American foursome which established a new world record of 47 seconds for 400 meters, each girl traversing 100 meters. Other runners were the Misses Carew, Rogers and von Bremen, the latter starting slightly to the rear of Miss Hikka Strike of Canada and beating her to the finish by a stride.

The Tustin lass started her lap virtually even with her opponents and ran so well that she started Miss Rogers off with an advantage of a full yard over the Canadian third-lap competitor.

Miss Furtusch was named on the U. S. relay team after failing to make the squad in the 100 meters because she stumbled and fell a yard from the finish in the Final American tryouts. She recently established a world's record of 11.8 seconds for 100 meters.

County Nocturnal Nines Begin Last Quarter of Grind

Five Orange County Night league baseball clubs begin the difficult task tonight of trying to head off Garden Grove's pellmell rush to the second half championship. Having already clinched the first round, the Peppers also lead the second half by two full games as the six clubs swing into the final quarter of their race.

Doheys Park plays at Garden Grove tonight. Huntington Beach goes to Irvine, Olive to Orange.

LINDLEY IS CHAMP'S TRACK TITLEHOLDER

Taking first place in the broad jump and shot put, and second in the high jump, Ellwood Lindley, of Santa Ana, won the John R. Pryor athletic award, a handsome loving cup, at the Monterey Citizens' Military camp. Lindley piled up a total of 30 points, his nearest competitor having only 10.

Lindley has attended Santa Ana junior college for one and one-half years and is planning to enter the University of Southern California next fall. Lindley was runner-up in the Southwest Olympic hop-step-and-jump tryouts. He is the son of Ward S. Lindley, office manager of Hockaday, Harlow and Phillips, automotive parts firm.

DEBUSK HURLS PERFECT GAME FOR S. A. CLUB

Introducing the perfect picture of a "perfect pitcher"—blond young Ira DeBusk of Santa Ana's Stars. Without allowing a batsman to reach base, DeBusk achieved the ambition of all moundmen here Saturday night when he shut out Glendale without a semblance of a hit, winning his game, 2 to 0.

DeBusk fanned 19. The other eight hitters expired, respectively, on a foul fly to left field, an infield grounder, a popup to second base, a foul to left field, an infield grounder, a foul to the catcher, and an infield grounder. DeBusk handled two of the infield chances himself. At one time during the evening he had a string of eight successive strikeouts.

Catcher Clarence Hapes had 21 putouts, First Baseman Ed Daley but 3.

Santa Ana, limited to eight scattered blows by Pitcher Jim Sutterfuss of Glendale, made one run in the sixth when Leavitt Daley singled, took second on George Preble's sacrifice, scored on Rod Ballard's single to center.

Hapes' tremendous home run, a line drive between Argue and Gerardin against the left-center bank, accounted for Santa Ana's other counter in the seventh.

The contest, a snappy one-hour affair, attracted a generous sprinkling of fans.

NEW MAT CARD SCHEDULED FOR DELHI AUG. 18

Plans for the presentation of Santa Ana's second "independent" wrestling program were completed today by Promoter Elmer Willson when the latter signed the "Terrible Swede," Steve Strillich, contender for the world's light-heavyweight championship, to meet George Maloney, Irish champion, in a three-fall, two-hours time limit feature.

Strillich and Maloney meet at the Orange County Athletic club at Delhi Thursday night, Aug. 18, topping a three-bout bill featuring an array of fast and spectacular light-heavyweights.

Already Willson has lined up Dr. P. A. Mullikan, another title claimant and Mustapha Pasha, colorful Turk grappler. Opponents for the pair will be named within a day or two, Willson announced.

The coming program will mark the beginning of regular semi-monthly wrestling here. The inaugural bill was staged in the huge Santa Ana municipal bowl on the night of July 21 but the Olympic Games interrupted the schedule and it was decided to cancel subsequent shows until August 18.

Although the inaugural program was a financial flop, inasmuch as approximately $90,000 in advance of the site to view the matches atop of autos, trucks, houses and fences, the matches were spectacular and a success from an entertainment standpoint.

Under cover at the Delhi arena this tremendous "free list" will be suspended automatically and more than likely the coming show will prove a financial, as well as an entertainment success.

RIALTO AND COLTON TIED FOR NO. 1 SPOT

With the finish line just around the corner, Rialto and Colton are still tied for first place in the second half of the American Night league's baseball race. Riverside, which defeated Rialto Friday, is in third place, one game behind the deadlocked leaders. Riverside won the first half of the split season.

The inland clubs have four more games to go, Rialto meeting Redlands, San Bernardino, Arlington and Colton in order while Colton is opposing San Bernardino, Riverside, Redlands and Rialto. Observers believe the schedule favors Rialto.

U. S. CHAMPION NATION: ZABALA WINS MARATHON

By TED SMITS
(I.N.S. Sports Writer)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(INS)—In a blaze of glory, the track and field events of the Games of the Tenth Olympiad passed into history today.

Two more world records were hung up, and a new Olympic record created in the classic marathon, won by 20-year-old Juan Carlos Zabala of the Argentine. From the standpoint of attendance, records broken, and all around competition the present games will go down as the greatest in the history of Olympic competition.

The track and field events were won by the United States with 11 out of 23 championships, for a total of 218 unofficial points. Finland was second with three championships and 72 unofficial points, and England third with two championships and 56 points.

U. S. Leads In Total Points
The United States also continued to lead today in total points piled up in all sports with 383-1-7 against 121-1-2 for Italy, 120 for Sweden, 119 for Finland, 105 for Germany, and 104 for France.

A crowd of 80,000 watched the closing events in men and women's track and field competition. They were thrilled by Zabala's brave marathon run which established a new Olympic record of 2:31:36 as against the old mark of 2:32:35.8 by the famous Hans Kolchman of Finland, made in 1924.

Track and field in the Olympic stadium gave way to gymnastics today while swimming held the spotlight as the chief sports. Fencing, yachting and field hockey

590,000 Attend Olympic Stadium Events

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(INS)—Track and field events of the tenth Olympic Games have rung up all-time attendance records, conservative estimates today indicated.

Including the first day's opening ceremonies it was estimated 590,000 persons had witnessed the games in Olympic stadium.

Approximately 30,500 have witnessed the first two days' swimming events. In the neighborhood of 50,000 have attended wrestling matches, and close to that number the cycling events.

Boxing will draw big crowds this week and rowing is expected to draw large throngs.

Several hundred thousand saw the free events, the 50,000 meter walk, the cycle road race and the marathon.

TELL PAIRINGS FOR FATHERS-SONS GOLF

With 16 combinations enrolled, first round pairings for the Santa Ana Country club's annual Fathers-and-Sons golf tournament were released today by Burnett Lane, director of the play. Opening matches must be completed this week.

Late News From Orange And Nearby Towns

CARRIE LEWIS INSTALLED AS COLOR BEARER

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—Installation of Mrs. Carrie Lewis as third color bearer in the place of Mrs. Marie Higgins, who resigned, was a feature of the recent meeting of the Women's Relief corps held in Smith and Grote hall. Mrs. Gladys McDonald was installing officer.

The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Euphemia Ralls. It was reported that 35 calls had been made and 10 bouquets distributed. Among those reported ill was Mrs. Mary Koenig.

Mrs. McDonald announced that a nice sum had been raised for the treasury of the corps as the result of a benefit party given at her home recently. Plans were made for the W. R. C. picnic to be held all day August 30 at Irvine park. Mrs. Mabel Elliott was named chairman of the dinner committee for the regular meeting to be held Wednesday, August 17.

Invitations were received asking corps members to attend receptions for department officers in Pasadena, Compton and Riverside. An application for membership was received from Mrs. Gladys Wetherbee.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT CHURCH SUNDAY

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—A program composed almost entirely of sacred numbers is to be given at St. John's Lutheran church Sunday evening, August 21 at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Alice Flene of this city will be heard in a group of organ selections. She has a studio in this city, and is choir director and organist at Zion Lutheran church in Anaheim.

Proceeds from the affair will be devoted to work in foreign missions. The Rev. Melneig Grumm of this city, recently ordained as a missionary to India, and who will leave for the foreign field in September, is to assist in the program. He will give violin selections.

Mrs. Alex Dutzl, soprano and Henry Bamesberger, baritone, both of Anaheim, also will be guest artists, giving vocal solos.

ORANGE CLUB IN ALL-DAY MEETING

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—Sew and Sell club members were entertained Friday in the home of Mrs. Hattie Siegfried, 145 South Cypress street. A morning of sewing was concluded when a delicious covered-dish luncheon was served at noon.

The business session of the afternoon was presided over by the president, Mrs. Anna Slater. Mrs. Slater will be hostess at the next meeting, to be held Friday, August 19.

ORANGE W. C. T. U. MEETS TOMORROW

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—A program on "Citizenship" will be given tomorrow afternoon at the monthly meeting of the Orange W. C. T. U. to be held at 2:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. Sentimental meetings will be resumed in the fall.

The program will be carried out with leaflets on the subject of "Citizenship." The topics are "Get Out to Vote," "My Governmental Duties," and "Why Court Attendance." There will be an important business session, with Mrs. Minnie Neville, the president, in charge.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Farrar entertained a group of cousins from Los Angeles as guests in their home for a day. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pine, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bennett and their three grandchildren.

Robert Falcke has been painting a boat for a friend at Balboa and Mrs. Falcke has been accompanying him each day and, spending the days on the beach.

DEER WHICH DISPUTED RIGHT-OF-WAY WITH CAR FOUND DEAD

SILVERADO, Aug. 8.—The deer, struck down by E. R. Shaw Thursday night near the Black Star crossing when it jumped directly in the path of his car, was found by Dick Holly one-half mile from the scene of the accident. Fatally injured and suffering from loss of blood, the doe had made one last effort to reach water but had fallen in the dry bed of the stream. There Holly found the body, mutilated by vultures, when he drove into the stream bed for a load of sand. Shaw and the deer disputed the right-of-way to Silverado canyon Thursday night and both had a thrilling moment in consequence. Shaw was making good time when the deer jumped directly in front of his car. The impact sent one headlight straight up, bent the fender and trimmed the front of the car in scarlet.

He stopped his car as soon as possible and searched for the victim of the crash but was unable to locate it in the darkness and so was unable to bring back any evidence of his story until the deer was found.

H. F. SHEERER IS SPEAKER AT UNION SERVICE

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—The Rev. H. F. Sheerer, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the speaker at the sixth union service held last evening in the First Presbyterian church, at which there was a splendid attendance.

The union service was exceptionally helpful and the interest manifest has surpassed all previous records. It was stated. Miss Lois Allen, pianist of the First Baptist church, ably presided at the pipe organ. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stefferson, of Santa Ana, sang a duet number, "Inspiration and Hearer of Prayer," by Adam Gelbel. Preceding the sermon Elbert Burt sang "I Love My Saviour Dear," by James Nelson, which was in preparation for the message of the evening.

The topic of the evening, "Our Possessions," was based upon Luke 12:15, "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." The Rev. H. F. Sheerer said in part: "One would think the way some people live that all of life was made up of what we possess. The Lord's exhortation is 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you.'"

"As one becomes possessed with the spirit of getting, it is not long, until one not only has possessions, but the possession has the person. Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The more treasure one has of material things the more danger there is that the heart may become set on things instead of on God. A very wealthy man died the morning after his death someone asked, 'How much did he leave?' The answer given was 'He left all.' That was true and it will be true of all. The word of Scripture to all is 'trust not in uncertain riches, but in the living word of God.'"

"God admonishes His people to have a higher aim in life than merely seeking possessions of this world. Some people are so absorbed in 'making a living' that they give no thought to 'making a life.' America has been absorbed in grasping and getting gold, but through the experiences of the past year or two, adversity and distress has had the good effect of bringing many to heed the motto on our currency, 'In God We Trust.'"

"In many homes, father and mother have gone out to work, not because of necessity, but that there might be a larger bank roll, that they might possess much of this world's goods, that they might live in luxury and pleasure, and the children have been left to go their own way to such an extent that in many cases the school and juvenile authorities were forced to step in that something might be done to save the boys and girls."

"We have heard much talk about the boy and girl problem and what could be done to help. It is rather a parent problem. When fathers and mothers line up along moral and spiritual lines, when the home becomes what it ought to be, to a large degree the situation will be solved."

"The major thought in this whole matter of possessions to the Christian is that he has possessions that are spiritual and are far superior to all natural possessions. For example, God gives every true believer the following rich possessions: 'Forgiveness according to the riches of His grace,' 'Redemption through His blood,' 'Acceptance in the beloved,' 'Adoption into the family of God by Jesus Christ,' 'Justified without blame before His love,' 'Closeness in Him before the foundation of the world' and 'Blessed with all spiritual blessings in Christ Jesus.'"

"These are the possessions most worth while and that satisfy and will endure to all eternity. Even 'Christ, though He was rich, yet for our sakes became poor' that

OBSERVE THREE BIRTHDAYS AT DINNER PARTY

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kenyon, Romney Drive, Anaheim, were hosts yesterday at a birthday dinner when three birthdays were observed. Honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Bramble and little son, Dick Bramble, whose birthdays all fall the first part of August. Mr. Bramble and his son have the same natal day, August 4, and Mrs. Bramble who is the daughter of the hosts, celebrated her birthday yesterday.

The tables held three birthday cakes, aglow with lighted tapers, and the rooms of the home were decked with bouquets and baskets of late summer blossoms. The afternoon passed pleasantly in chat.

Those present other than Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon, were Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Niles, Mrs. Addie Kenyon, Miss Lila Kenyon of Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kenyon and daughter, Miss Enid Kenyon of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Bramble and son, Dick of Anaheim.

ORANGE PERSONALS

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Gladys McDonald, Mrs. Euphemia Ralls, Mrs. Florence Heriman and Mr. and Mrs. Jud Lee of this city, and Mrs. Estelle Grey, president of the W. R. C. in Santa Ana, were in Los Angeles Friday attending a meeting at Patriotic hall. In the afternoon, the group attended a theater.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McCandless, South Shaffer street, who have been touring the east, were at Craig, Colo., when last heard from here. They may motor to Pennsylvania before returning to Orange in September.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Fishback, 284 North Glassell street, had as week end guests Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Barker of Fresno. The Barkers are former residents of this city, where Mr. Barker was English teacher in Orange Union High school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Waite, 228 South Lemon street, left Sunday for Berkeley, accompanying Mrs. Waite's sister, Miss Helen Campbell, of Garden Grove. Miss Campbell is to enroll at the University of California as a junior, having completed a junior college court this June. Mr. and Mrs. Waite expect to make a direct trip, returning home immediately.

The Misses Mildred Stuthett, Ruth Brubaker, Lillian and Hazel Morrow and Messrs Albert Brubaker, Paul Bakenhus and Marvin Stuthett of Villa Park and Orange, were among members of Santa Ana Evangelical church spending the week end at a Boy Scout camp near San Gabriel. Miss Edith Culter, retreat supervisor, accompanied the group.

Miss Margaret Lussier of Port Townsend, Wash., has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lussier, North Glassell street. Miss Greta Akin, of Colorado, who is spending the summer here; Miss Alice Stevens, Miss Margaret Loeschner and Miss Margaret Harrison and a group of her pupils, Carol May Larson, Harold Larson, Betty Woodruff and Elsie Sorenson, all of Orange, attended the concert at the Hollywood Bowl Saturday evening. Before leaving for the city, Miss Akin, Miss Stevens and Miss Harrison were dinner guests of Miss Loeschner in her home on East Chapman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Watson and son, Richard, of Culver City, spent the week end in Orange. The Rev. and Mrs. Clifford C. Bacon and daughters, Marcia and Betty, of Marshalltown, Ia., and their niece, Margaret Bacon of Ames, Ia., arrived here Saturday for a visit. They are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Park, 235 East Maple avenue, and other relatives.

Among members of the Orange W. C. T. U. who were at Irvine park the past week attending the meeting of the Orange county unions were Mrs. Minnie Neville, president of the local organization, and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Jennie Conner, Mrs. Angeline Courtney, Miss Mary Haywood, Miss Carrie Heywood, Miss Elsie Parsons, Mrs. A. R. Fernald, Miss Lela Fernald and Mrs. Pearl Kendall Hess.

East Palm avenue, had as recent guests Dr. and Mrs. Harry B. Yocom of Oregon and Mrs. Arthur Beckley of Meda, Penn. Dr. Yocom is professor of natural science at the University of Oregon.

At a late hour refreshments were served to Mrs. Bell Barnes, Mrs. Margaret Faber, Mrs. Lucy Robinson, Mrs. Hattie Davis, Mrs. Mary Carlson, Mrs. Anna Slater, Mrs. Gladys McDonald and the hostess, Mrs. Elliott. Mrs. McDonald will be hostess at the next meeting.

Many Articles Found at City Library

ORANGE, Aug. 8.—Scissors of various kinds frequently have been appearing in books returned at the Orange public library recently and are now being held at the lost and found department. The scissors include dry goods, surgical and kindergarten varieties. Other articles found are cigarette cases, embroidery silks, ash trays, cigarette cases and cigar ashes. Bills and love letters also are accumulating at the library desk.

OPENS OFFICE

EL MODENA, Aug. 8.—Dr. H. Holmson, Anaheim physician, has opened an office in El Modena at the corner of Esplanade and Chapman avenue. At the present time Dr. Holmson will hold office hours in El Modena three mornings a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. Dr. Holmson has practiced in Anaheim for the past ten years. He has purchased the Robert Shaw property, above the Irvine park where he will build a convalescent home in the near future.

WALTHER GROUP HEARS REPORTS ON CONVENTION

OLIVE, Aug. 8.—Instead of the regular topic study, members of St. Paul's Walther League recently heard detailed reports of the international Walther League convention, held in Los Angeles last week. Interesting talks on the convention were given by Miss Marion Brelje, Miss Meta Paulus, E. H. Kreidt, Robert Paulus and Harold Paulus.

In the business meeting which followed, Erwin Krage and Walter Meier were elected senior delegates to the district convention to be held at Grace church in San Diego September 3 to 5. Robert Paulus and Miss Ester Helm were chosen as alternates. Walter Boehner and Miss Josephine Luchau were appointed to represent the Juniors at the district convention.

Miss Josephine Luchau was elected to serve as junior chairman, and Robert Paulus will act as senior advisor to the juniors. The following were elected as a committee to investigate the feasibility of a summer conference camp: E. H. Kreidt, Walter Meier and Miss Josephine Luchau.

Addresses Heard Yesterday In Santa Ana Churches

PASTOR TELLS WHEN MAN IS MOST LIKE GOD

"When Man Is Most Like God" was the topic selected by Rev. Donald E. Gaylord, pastor of the Brea Congregational church, as the topic for his sermon yesterday. He spoke from the text in Genesis 3:22, "And the Lord God said, behold the man has become as one of us, to know good and evil."

He said in part: "A man questioned when seen studying the countenance of a dog said 'he wondered if a dog was as good as a man.' This is an age old question put in another way, perhaps, 'what distinguishes man from beast?' There have been many answers, man's ability to use tools, his powers to think abstractly, his ability in moral discernment. The latter seems the most important."

"Man is the only animal who can solve problems in geometry. If the saying that man can use saws and hammers is the only difference between dog and man, it would not be saying much. Man is most like God when exercising his moral discernment. As when God said 'Behold the man has become like one of us to know good and evil.'"

"Morality is not just following the style and conventional morality is in constant processes of being changed through moral discernment. It is not so many years ago that woman was considered the property of man. The ten commandments were seemingly written for man only. Not so very long ago it was considered noble to march off to tone of bugle and drum. This is changing a lot. Now a thing belongs to a man when he comes by it honestly. Conventional morality is very necessary. We need to be losers not gainers in morality. We must remember 'Thou shalt not steal' is not just taking."

"Some are scrapping all of our conventional morality, showing a lack, not gain, in their processes of moral judgment. This power is not static. It will atrophy if it is not used. Part of our difficulty today is that people are neglecting this power. Here we note a surprising observation, not the difference in opinion on right and wrong, but agreement on this solution of many problems."

"Instead of the trick of rationalizing as practiced by making one's desires a reason for anything wanted and by this method stamp out all divine spark within. Notice the right and wrong of the liquor drinking. No man before beginning reasons it out. He begins to drink first at a party or does not want to refuse a friend at some social function."

"A man who drives when drunk knows he should not do it. Those who claim more drinking than before Prohibition know the statement not correct or could do so if they informed themselves. Power grows when put into use and a cutting edge is dulled through winking at petty sins but sharpened when watched to make great decisions clear. This applies to Christianity."

"Christianity has a claim on man and he recognizes in it a way of life supreme. The great reason for lack of moral discernment is we cannot tell average goodness from true Christianity because we have been content with compromise Christianity for so long. We must revive our powers. Saturate our lives with Christianity. Do not stop at the ten commandments but get out your new testament and read, and read it until we understand Christianity. Let us subject our lives to a close scrutiny, not someone's else life. The failure of much preaching to effect any difference in people's lives is seeing just how it fits someone else. Can we apply this to ourselves?"

PICNIC MARKS END FOR BIBLE SCHOOL

The Daily Vacation Bible school at the Mexican Methodist church, First and Garfield streets, the Rev. B. E. Garcia, pastor, closed Saturday when 72 children who had been in attendance were taken to picnic in a truck furnished by J. J. MacMullen.

By noon all were ready for the bountiful lunch which has been provided by American friends. More play, and then the crowning event of the day, a large freezer of ice cream which the Excelsior Creamery donated for the occasion.

REPORT 3 THEFTS AT NEWPORT BEACH

NEWPORT BEACH, Aug. 8.—Sam Creamer, who lives in the 2100 block on Ocean Front, reported to police headquarters that while the family and the maid were out on the beach some one went into the house through an open side door and stole $5 in cash and a $20 gold watch that were left laying on the table.

The proprietor at the Twin Palms Inn reported the theft of a purse containing $5 from his place and tipped the police force off to a party that he suspected.

A car registered to George K. Archer was rifled of a pair of trousers and a pair of shoes, $21 in cash, a man's wrist watch, and a ladies wrist watch as it stood parked in the streets of Corona Del Mar according to a report received here by the sheriff's office yesterday.

Honor Birthday of Garden Grove Girl

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 8.—Mrs. John L. Mitchell entertained a group of children on a recent afternoon at her home on East Stanford street in observance of the fifth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Nancy Jane.

Various games were played during the afternoon. Richard Elliott was awarded the prize in a peanut hunt. Each child received a toy from a fish pond. The honoree received many lovely gifts from her guests.

Dainty table appointments in pink and green were used with a handsome birthday cake as a centerpiece. The favors were candy dolls. Ice cream was served with the birthday cake. The hostess was assisted by her

S. A. MINISTER HELPS PASTOR AT EL MODENA

At the morning services at El Modena Friends' church, the pastor, the Rev. James F. Flisk, was assisted by Rev. Schultz, of Santa Ana. He read the scripture lesson, James 1:18-25, and John 14:1-14.

Reverend Flisk took as his text part of the ninth verse of John 14—"Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip?" He said in part:

"The time had come that Jesus was going away from his disciples, and He was talking to them about leaving them. The Holy Spirit had not yet come; they knew that Jesus had performed miracles, but they looked on him as a man. They were looking on the material things. They expected Him to set up a kingdom. They had been promised a Redeemer but if he was going to leave them, their hopes began to fail."

"He hadn't accomplished the things they had expected Him to accomplish. They knew Him as Christ, but not as God. They had failed to see the Father in the Son, and it was very necessary for them to see. Philip said, 'Show us the Father and it will satisfy us.' Man is naturally looking for evidence of the truth. It was right for Philip to ask if he did not know, Jesus was surprised. He was pleased with their sincerity but not with their blindness."

"We are very anxious to make friends. We seek to become close friends with those who are congenial. We seek the acquaintance of Jesus, and we want to know Him. Jesus reveals Himself to man only through man and by man."

"Philip was anxious for his hopes were slipping as far as they could see. Jesus was surprised and rebuked him. Our hope of peace and rest depends on our acquaintance with Jesus Christ. We may have heard of Him or read of Him; our mothers may have told us of Him, but we want to understand His attributes and put our trust in Him. We want a personal acquaintance with God."

"We can converse with man, and if he has only his own thoughts to think of, we come to an end. Man exhausts his resources, but when we become acquainted with Jesus Christ, He constantly reveals more of Himself. There is no intelligent man that is satisfied to not increase in knowledge and to become better acquainted with God."

"The only way to find God is by the Holy Spirit. You may get a fine education but not know Jesus Christ. Education is only a part of what is needed. We have the intellect, the spirit, and the physical man and none of them can be neglected. The key into the kingdom of God is spirit."

daughter, Ruth Leslie, and Lois Dolg. Those present besides the honoree, Nancy Jane Mitchell, were Molly Ellen Dolg, Lorene Davis, Ruth Edelson, Caroline Jean Tournant, Donald and Jack Jordan and Richard Elliott.

"MARKS OF A CHRISTLIKE MIND," SERMON SUBJECT AT UNION CHURCH MEET

THE REV. Cecil M. Aker, pastor of the Spurgeon Memorial Church, delivered the sermon last night at the Union Church Service held in First Methodist Church.

Special music was furnished by the First Methodist Church choir which sang Maunder's beautiful anthem "Praise the Lord," and a duet by James H. Hughes and Edwin Biddle. Mrs. W. B. Snow was organist. Announcing the subject for his sermon as "The Marks of a Christlike Mind" the Reverend Aker took his text from Philippians 2:5-11. His sermon, in part, follows:

"We have chosen for our text tonight the central teaching of one of the greatest Christian teachers of all time—that of the Apostle Paul as given in his letter to the Philippians. Much of the mind of Christ is revealed to us in the gospel stories of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; but when we want to find a concise and vivid statement of the mind of Christ, we turn to this famous passage given in Philippians 2:5-11. Here we have revealed 'that consciousness of the Christ of God which lay behind and inspired all his words and works.'"

Supreme appeal of the letter, and its practical application to us today, is to be found in the opening exhortation of this profound passage, 'Have this mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus.'"

"The apostle then proceeds to describe just what sort of a mind this was, in order that we may find out if we have a right to lay claim to being of that same mind. And as he proceeds we find that it is entirely at opposite poles from much that is called Christian today. It was a mind that sought to surrender its rights if thereby others could be benefited by the surrender. Paul declares that 'though being in the form of God, Christ counted it not a prize to be jealously retained, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, He humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.'"

"Benjamin Kidd says that when Jesus Christ stood before Pilate that day, two types of power met; the power of self-assertion, and the power of self-sacrifice. One represents this world's attitude of mind or spirit; the other, that of the spiritual attitude or mind or spirit. The one is for the exaltation of self, for selfish supremacy; the other, is the way of self-abnegation and self-sacrifice. The one is symbolized by Pilate and all he stood for; the other, is symbolized by Christ and his cross and all that they stand for."

One Mark
"One mark of the mind of Christ is willingness to surrender our rights if thereby a larger blessing can come to humanity by the surrender of them. There are those who today are loud in their acclaim of what they call their personal rights; by which they mean, their right to drink liquor and sell booze, and trample on the 18th Amendment. They never seem to think, nor do they care, how many rights it takes away from their employers, their wives and children. Above the rights of the individual there are the rights of the family, the community as a whole, and the nation. One of the great American universities has inscribed over its entrance, 'Above the rights of any nation stand the rights of humanity.' Christ counted not his being on an equality with God a prize to be jealously retained."

"Another mark of the mind of Christ, was his willingness to become a servant rather than a lord to be served. 'He emptied Himself taking the form of a servant.' There was no jockeying for a place of prestige and power on His part. He pointedly told two of his young disciples who came seeking places on his right and left hand, that he was not dispensing patronage to those who could not join Him in the baptism."

The Rev. Eldsath was formerly pastor of the Orange Mennonite church. Mrs. Emily Watson left Wednesday for New York where she will sail August 9 with the Gold Star Mothers for France.

W. C. T. U. WILL SPONSOR WET, DRY DEBATE

Sponsored by the W. C. T. U., J. Frank Burke, publisher of The Register, and J. A. Hadaller, San Bernardino attorney and candidate to Congress will debate tomorrow night, in Fullerton, on the prohibition question. The debate will be in the old auditorium of the Fullerton high school.

Burke and Hadaller will argue the question: "Resolved: Prohibition is the best method of dealing with the liquor traffic, and hence it should be retained." Burke will uphold the affirmative and Hadaller the negative.

Burke will argue from the standpoint of the Eighteenth Amendment and its value in upholding prohibition and suppression of the liquor traffic. Hadaller will talk from the standpoint of the Democratic party platform and its avowal for repeal.

Burke, in his talk, will mention California's Wright Act, incidentally during the affirmative argument and will demand that his opponent outline his attitude on this measure.

College Friends Feted at Dinner

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 8.—Miss Gertrude Jentges was hostess a recent evening at a pleasant informal dinner at her home on Fourth street, at which she complimented three college friends: Misses Rosalind Schilling, of Santa Ana, Miss Dulcie Green, of Orange, and Miss Helen Campbell, of Garden Grove, all of whom are leaving soon for college work at Berkeley.

Dainty shades of pink were used in decorating the dinner table where tall pink tapers shed a soft light upon the attractive appointments.

Beautiful flowers were used about the living room where bridge was enjoyed, with high score for the evening being held by Miss Schilling.

Sewing Circle In Fuller Park Meet

FULLER PARK, August 8.—Mrs. J. Arthur Miller was hostess to the "Happy Hour Sewing Circle" at her home on West Commonwealth Ave. Thursday. A three-course luncheon was served at one o'clock. Bowls of dahlias, snapdragons, larkspur and salpiglossis were the flowers from her own garden, used in appointing the room.

The afternoon was spent with needlework and chatting. Present were Mrs. F. Guthrie, Mrs. C. Colleague, Mrs. A. G. Oswald, Mrs. Harlan Miller, of Fuller Park, Mrs. E. R. Sundry of Alhambra and the hostess.

Epworth Leaguers To Meet At Beach

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 8.—The Huntington Beach Epworth league of the Methodist church will be the host to several hundred young folks of the leagues of Orange county at a reunion and rally here tonight. They will meet on the beach near Eighth street at 7:30 o'clock where they will enjoy a wiener bake, a "pep" rally, and the usual games.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Paul's words to the Corinthians, "By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bound or free; and we have been all made to drink into one Spirit," constituted the Golden Text in the lesson-sermon on "Spirit" at the Santa Ana First Church of Christ, Scientist, yesterday.

One of the Scriptural selections in the lesson-sermon included these verses from that Acts: "And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: the same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked."

A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, stated, "When we come to have more faith in the truth of being than we have in error, more faith in spirit than in matter, more faith in living than dying, more faith in God than in man, then no material suppositions can prevent us from healing the sick and destroying error."

ANNUAL PICNIC OF CHURCH IS STAGED

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 8.—The annual picnic of the Alamosa Friends church was held at Irvine park recently with 125 persons attending.

A program was presented which included readings by the children and a mock trial of "Old Man Depression," with the following taking part: W. O. Brady, judge; Mrs. Harold Coney and Wilbur Musser, on the defense; Mrs. James Robertson and the Rev. C. N. Jones, prosecution lawyers, and Rudolph Rex, "Old Man Depression." A ball game was also part of the entertainment.

Organ Concert Is Distinct Success

COSTA MESA, Aug. 8.—The organ recital given under the auspices of the Loyal Workers' class, Sunday afternoon at the Community church, with George H. Wood of Pasadena, as organist, was enjoyed by a large group of music lovers.

Mr. Wood was ably assisted by Robert Somerville, tenor soloist, and the Somerville quartet, all of Pasadena. Mrs. Veda Thompson, organist of the church, made all arrangements for the concert.

PUBLISHER TO GIVE TALK AT CHURCH MEET

Using as his topic, "Some Light on the Political Situation," J. Frank Burke, editor of the Daily Register, will give a talk at an open meeting Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the Church of the Brethren, Canille and Rose streets, it was announced today by the Rev. Fred Flora, pastor.

The address by the Santa Ana publisher will be the main feature of the regular monthly Church Night program. It is expected that the talk will cover various phases of national and local politics, with some attention on prohibition and the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment.

The meeting will be preceded by a supper at 7 p.m. in the church basement, both affairs being open to the public. The meal will be provided by the Men's Brotherhood of the church. A short musical program has been arranged to include piano numbers by Ray Baker, vocal duet by Miss Ada Teter and Mrs. Margaret Corbett, and numbers by the young men's quartet and the girls' quartet.

W.C.T.U. TO HOLD MONTHLY MEETING

The monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held here tomorrow in the Spurgeon Memorial church starting at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Effie Nicholson and Mrs. Robb will be the leaders.

The topic for discussion has been outlined as "Scientific Temperance."

Church Will Hold Roll Call Service

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 5.—"Roll Call" day will be observed at Westminster church Sunday, three services during the day being on the interesting program planned. The Sunday school hour will be devoted to the roll call, a special sermon will be presented at the 11 o'clock service by the pastor, the Rev. C. G. Carter, while the evening an illustrated prohibition service will be in charge of the Rev. J. W. Richmond of Garden Grove who will show a group of 20 pictures dealing with his subject.

CHURCH CLUBS WOMEN SOCIETY THE HOME WEDDINGS FASHIONS HOUSEHOLD

College Studies Await Young People Wedded At Home Ceremony

Following the marriage Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock of Miss Ruth Rhoades of Harrisburg, Pa., and Everett Trostle of this city, the newly-wedded pair are en route to Berkeley, where both are to take up studies at the University of California. The bride is to enter the university as a freshman while Mr. Trostle will take post graduate work.

The ceremony was a lovely event taking place in the home of Mr. Trostle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Trostle, 816 North Flower street. It was especially significant that Dr. Oscar A. Rider of Los Angeles should be the officiating minister, for he had presided at the ceremony in Highland, Calif., 29 years ago uniting Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Trostle in marriage. He had been a friend of the family for over 35 years.

Proceeding the vows, Miss Elaine Smith of Orange played appropriate selections on the piano. As the hour for the ceremony drew near, she played "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me." The notes of Lohengrin's wedding march signalled the entry of the young couple. There were no attendants.

Pretty Bridal Scene

The large living room of the home, decorated with pink gladioli and ferns, provided the setting for the event. Additional gladioli and much greenery banded the fireplace, near where the service took place. The bride was attractive in a semi-formal gown of heavy white tulle, crepe, fashioned on flaring lines with quaint cap sleeves. She wore no veil, and a corsage of white gardenias and yellow roses adorned her lovely bridal attire.

The enjoyable congratulatory period, dainty pink and white iced moulded with heart and wedding bell centers were served with angel food cakes led in white and topped with pink rosebuds. Individual trays used in serving the menu were beautifully appointed in the chosen color theme.

School Plans

The new Mr. and Mrs. Trostle left shortly after for Riverside Mission Inn. For traveling Mrs. Trostle chose a smart green suit of soft wool, wearing with it all accessories in white. From Riverside, the young people were to continue on their way north to Berkeley. The bride completed her high school studies at Harrisburg, Pa., in June. Her husband will continue his work in physics, expecting to earn his Master's degree this year. In 1931, Mr. Trostle was graduated from California School of Technology, and last year he took a special course at Stanford university.

The bride and bridegroom expect to return home at Christmas time for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Trostle, and may spend a few days here before that time.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Grebe, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lagunas, Arthur Wakefield, Miss Doris Bell, John Stalmaker, Mrs. Nell D. Winslow, Miss Lois Winslow, Mrs. Kate Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Trostle of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hilyard, Miss Ruth Hilyard and Miss Elaine Smith of Orange; Bernard Morse of Alhambra; Miss Elizabeth Hobbs of Redlands and Dr. Rider of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Trostle first met last year when the Santa Ana man was visiting in Pennsylvania.

Randall Ranch Home Is Setting for Buffet Tea

Olympic clubs were combined in clever fashion by Miss Eleanor Randall of this city and Los Angeles, when she entertained Saturday afternoon in the old Randall home on East Seventeenth street, complimentary to Miss Elpha Thordike, pretty fiancée of Albert Tienert of Corona.

Guests were bidden to an afternoon of bridge for which tables were placed in the spacious rooms of the hospitable old home, amidst flowers in wide variety and in the deep color tones so closely associated with the Games now in progress. This theme was uppermost in other details including tully cards and especially in the ribbons and wrappings of the pretty prizes which Miss Randall distributed at the close of the card contest. The first of these awards went to Mrs. Edward Tienert of Corona, who scored high among the players. Miss Helen Spangler received second prize while consolation went to Miss Violet Boege of Anaheim.

Interesting as these gifts were, they assumed second place when it came time for the presentation to Miss Thordike of the lovely things in crystal which had been selected for her by the party guests. The interval of unwrapping and admiring the showery gifts was followed by the buffet tea when Miss Randall was assisted in pouring by Mrs. A. Thordike, mother of the honor guest.

Guests bidden to share the pleasant affair in addition to the honoree, Miss Elpha Thordike, and her mother and sister, Mrs. A. Thordike and Miss Julia Thordike, were Mrs. Joseph Schuler, Miss Marion Nisbet of Los Angeles; Miss Lillian Neumann of Orange; Miss Violet Boege, Anaheim; Miss Doris Goff, Laguna Beach; Mrs. Edward Tienert, Corona; Miss Frances Weston, Long Beach; the Misses Virginia Bailey, Loretta Spangler, Helen Spangler, Alice Majors, Louise Rupp, Barbara Rupp, Frances Viera, Helen Stauffer, Martha Wallingford, Marguerite Lents, Eleanor Rutledge, Barbara Horton, Beth Westcott; Mrs. Francis Norton; Mrs. Robert Goetting, Mrs. Fayette Richter, Mrs. C. W. Hoyle, E. E. Crumrine and Mrs. Edmund Lisenbard, Santa Ana.

Club Members Have Covered-dish Dinner

Members of a card club were entertained the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip La Londe, 906 North Flower street. A covered dish dinner was served to the accompaniment of pink, blue and yellow flowers attractively arranged at the dining room table. Yellow tapers in crystal holders added to the decorative scheme.

During the evening, three tables of six handed pinocle were in session. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lepper, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bittle, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Ewbank, Mr. and Mrs. James Farren and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. LaLonde of Santa Ana and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Terrill of Long Beach.

Sewing Meeting

Meeting Friday in the home of their teacher, Mrs. L. D. Mercereau, 1306 West Fifth street, members of the Young Women's Bible class of Calvary church spent a busy day making baby blankets and children's garments to be sent to the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hurlburt, members of Calvary church and missionaries in Africa. Part of the clothing will be for the use of native evangelists and their families as well as the Hurlburt family. An interesting letter recently received from Mrs. Hurlburt, whom the class is supporting, was read by Mrs. Mercereau.

Luncheon at noon was an enjoyable interval when the workers gathered around tables on the grassy lawn east of the home and partook of a delectable menu planned by Mrs. Marie Barnes. Mrs. Mercereau was assisted in hostess duties by Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Edna Burrows and Miss Myrtle Abplanalp.

It was announced by the class president, Mrs. Charlotte Gamble, that the class will hold a picnic at Huntington Beach August 20. Members of the Men's Bible class taught by L. D. Mercereau will also be present at the event.

Class members present Friday were Mesdames Reba Morrison, Ruby Kyle, Dorcas Elliott, Edna Leonard, Georgia Pederson, Gertrude Tallman, Marie Barnes, Edna Burrows, Esther Gilbreath, Murrell Woodward, Margaret Cumberland, Muriel Masin, Lucille Rinehart, Charlotte Gamble, Doris Tyler, Chloetta Hazen, Mabel Hazen, Ruth Griffith and and the Misses Alice Gall, Grace Myrtle Abplanalp.

Benefit Bridge Party To Add Funds for Playgrounds

Plans for a benefit garden bridge to be given by the City Council P. T. A. tomorrow afternoon in Willard school patio, are moving on to a successful conclusion, according to plans which the hostess committee announced today through the chairman, Mrs. Alvin Nowotny.

The party will be open to the general public upon the payment of a small admission fee, and plans are for the games program to start promptly at 2 o'clock. In this program, bridge will probably be the most popular diversion, although the committee members will have a variety of table games for those who do not care for bridge. Also they are taking into consideration the devotees of contract, so that contract players may be assured of tables for their favorite form of the game.

There will be a winner's prize for each table in addition to the door prizes, and in addition to these features of a real party, there will be the refreshment interval to follow and complete the afternoon's play.

Mrs. Nowotny, chairman, Mrs. George Ames, Mrs. George Preble and Mrs. Virgil L. Clem comprise the little group of council members planning the party as a benefit for the city playground work going on at Olive Street bowl. This group is seeing that all gifts, prizes and refreshments are donated so far as possible in order that proceeds from the party may be left intact to turn over to the fund.

The patio of the new junior high school is said to be a lovely just at present, with a grassy expanse of lawn, many flowering trees and a wealth of flowers to add bright color.

Boys Take Part in Celebration of Birthday

Friday evening brought a merry occasion to a group of boys invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Krepps, 1219 South Shelton street, for the event marked the 11th birthday anniversary of Robert Krepps, son of the home.

The party was of special pleasure to Robert, who had been planned as a surprise to him. After an evening spent in playing favorite outdoor games, the guests returned indoors where a delicious repast was awaiting them.

The dining room table was brightened with the glow of candles lighting the two birthday cakes, one in white and the other in blue and yellow, the color scheme of the evening. Flowers used in decorating were in blue and yellow, as were the candy-filled baskets at each place. Ice cream and fruit were served with the cakes.

In serving, Mrs. Krepps had the assistance of her mother, Mrs. J. McCullough. Those present were Robert Krepps, Robert Krepps, Wayne Max, Ray McNeese, Robert Kechner, Gorman Cruzen, Robert Willit, Robert Krepps, the honored guest and Mr. and Mrs. Krepps.

The guests presented Robert with many gifts.

Pioneer Girls Have Outdoor Breakfast

Varying their monthly social meetings, Pioneer girls of the First Methodist church held an early morning breakfast Wednesday at Irvine park. Following the enjoyable repast, they spent the time hiking and playing games.

They were accompanied to the park by Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes, as Mrs. Hughes is teacher of the group.

Class members present were Edna Blum, Janet Diehl, Marjorie Lindsey, Margaret Finley, Mary Ford, Elizabeth Wassum, Genevieve Glover, Evelyn Hyatt, Lois Marie Pranke, Nadine Johnson, Mary Beth Campbell and Little Bobbie Jim Wassum, a special guest.

Church Societies

Outdoor Meeting

Members of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church held an early morning breakfast Wednesday at Irvine park. Following the enjoyable repast, they spent the time hiking and playing games.

The luncheon was served to precede a business session in charge of Mrs. J. G. Shanafelt.

Miss Carter, of the Bible Institute in San Francisco, was the speaker of the afternoon, taking a text from the Bible.

Presbyterian

The hospitality of the C. F. Smith home, 1717 North Broadway, was extended last week to members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church, who met there for a luncheon and program. Although the Smiths are spending the vacation in their summer home on the St. Lawrence river, Mrs. Smith's sister, Miss Preble Drake, was hostess at the meeting.

Following a morning session, the group enjoyed a covered dish luncheon in the lovely garden at the rear of the home. The program which took up the remainder of the time was a review of the book, "As It Looks to Young China," written by seven different educators of China. Mrs. A. M. McDermott, Mrs. Leon Lauderbach, Mrs. E. L. Hull, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson and Mrs. Luella Green gave the review.

Pretty Ohio Visitors Are Incentive for Entertaining

One of the lovely events which have been given in honor of Miss Charlotte Eck of Miami, Ohio, and Miss Jane Wheeler of West Carrollton, Ohio, who have been home guests of Mrs. Christine Lambert, 523 North Pine street, Orange, since their arrival in Southern California early this summer, was the garden bridge party Friday afternoon at which Mrs. Lambert was hostess.

The garden of the home with its lily pool starred with blooms and the fragrance of many roses, made an attractive setting for the event. Gay-hued umbrellas shaded the bridge tables and tallies which carried out a summer time motif were tiny fans.

First prize at bridge went to Mrs. Robert Campbell who received silk lingerie, second prize was awarded to Mrs. Ray Krueger who received a string of crystals and third prize an Olympic bracelet went to Mrs. C. E. Short. Miss Eck and Miss Wheeler were presented with guest prizes.

After the bridge game the card tables were spread with linens in pale yellow while a yellow table service was used as part of the handsome appointments. At each place was a French nosegay repeating in design the invitations to the affair. Nuts were in the form of yellow roses. The garden was made more beautiful by tall baskets of zinnias in yellow and orange shades which were placed between the card tables.

Present were Mrs. John Harms Jr., Mrs. Paul Muench, Mrs. Stanley V. Mansur, Mrs. W. C. Lechtzuss, Mrs. Lavon Bravwell, Mrs. Charles Caster, Mrs. Wilber Lents, Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mrs. Ray Krueger, Mrs. O. A. Schildmeyer, Mrs. Oscar Lechtzuss, Mrs. Burhl Wing, Mrs. Margaret Sackett, Mrs. C. E. Short, Mrs. C. Forest Talmadge, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. M. L. Smith, Miss Bulabelle Smith, Mrs. Frank W. Mansur, Mrs. C. L. Benoit, Mrs. Herbert Batterman, Mrs. W. O. Hart, Mrs. H. O. Russell, Mrs. George Harms, Miss Dorothy Reynolds; Mrs. Mayme Thompson of Bellflower, and the honor guests, Miss Eck and Miss Wheeler, and the hostess, Mrs. Lambert.

In receiving her guests Mrs. Lambert wore a white French embroidered organza whose satin cord was embroidered with seed pearls. Miss Eck was in pale blue French embroidered organza and Miss Wheeler in pink organza.

The Women's auxiliary of the Church of the Messiah is to have a special and quite important meeting on Friday afternoon, when members have been called to assemble in the home of their president, Mrs. S. P. Freeman, 1418 Durant street. They will meet at 2:30 o'clock and the afternoon will be devoted to sewing for the unemployed.

The annual picnic meeting of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday in the home of Mrs. E. L. Morrison, 116 South Birch street. All women of the church, together with their husbands, are invited to attend. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:15 o'clock. All attending are to bring table service and a covered dish. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished. At 1:30 o'clock, a program will be given by the young people.

Calumit auxiliary floor team and officers will have a practice meeting tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in the Knights of Columbus hall.

The monthly social of the Two-In-One class of the first Methodist Sunday school will meet

Family Party Given As Birthday Courtesy

An enjoyable family party yesterday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill, 730 Minter street, was in observance of the 12th birthday anniversary of Billy Hill, a son of the home.

Those in the group were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill and their children, Billy, Betty and Marjorie Alice and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hill and little son, Herbert Jr., of Whittier. The dinner was served at a pretty appointed table whose appointments included a large decorated birthday cake, topped with glowing pink and white candles.

Among gifts received by the honored guest was a ping pong set, and the game proved to be an enjoyable feature of the party. Billy returned the latter part of the week from San Dimas, where he had spent several days with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hill and son Clifford. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill drove to the inland city to accompany their son home.

Church Societies

United Brethren

When members of the Women's Missionary society of the United Brethren church held their annual picnic meeting Thursday at Bixby park, Long Beach, they were joined by members of the Whittier and Long Beach societies, who had been asked to join the party as special guests.

The Long Beach women reserved the tables and decorated them in purple, orchid and white, the missionary colors, while the Whittier guests supplied hot coffee for the picnic luncheon served at noon. All those attending brought well-filled baskets. Girls' Missionary societies were guests of honor.

At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon the program began, with Mrs. W. O. Sidman, president of the Santa Ana society, bringing greetings to the group. She introduced Mrs. T. W. Ringland of this city as program chairman. Miss Naomi Sande led the congregational singing and Mrs. Mattie Snyder of Long Beach led the devotional service. Miss Mary Martin and Miss Eva Johnson of Whittier sang "Ivory Palaces."

Mrs. Ringland introduced three of the newly elected state W. M. A. officers, including Mrs. Julia Jones, president; Mrs. Mabel Snell, vice-president of the Southern district and Miss Gladys Pollock, president of the Girls' Otterbein guild. Each officer responded with a short talk, telling of her plans for the year's work.

Miss Naomi Sande and Miss Elva Ringland of the Santa Ana Otterbein guild sang "List to the Voice."

Mrs. Mabel Snell introduced Mrs. Grace E. Shively, who was the speaker for the afternoon. Mrs. Shively, with her husband and young son, leave August 22 to begin their fourth term as missionaries in Japan. Mrs. Shively told of the life of the Japanese women and girls, and of their own work in Doshisha University in Kyoto.

About 100 women attended the picnic, 50 of whom were from the Santa Ana society. In addition to members from Long Beach and Whittier, Los Angeles and Bell Memorial churches were present at the affair.

Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Hewes park for a covered dish dinner. All attending are to bring table service, a hot dish and sandwiches.

Vacation Bible School Concludes Sessions

Coming as an appropriate climax to the daily vacation Bible school of Calvary church, which has been conducted successfully for the past four weeks, were the closing exercises for mothers and friends held Friday afternoon in the peacock room of Ebell clubhouse. Over 80 children have been enrolled in the Bible school which was held in the homes of Mrs. John T. Maret, Mrs. William Breckenridge, Mrs. Chester L. Tallman, Mrs. W. A. Chapman and Mrs. R. Earl Elliott. Teachers to whom much credit is due for the success of the school were Mrs. John Sutherland, Mrs. John T. Maret, Miss Nan Sutherland, Miss Norma Buck, Mrs. Mary Graham, Miss Ethel Duckett, Miss Myrtle Graham and Mrs. Josephine Blood. Mrs. Lewis J. Gall, president of the Women's Missionary society of the church, had general supervision of the work.

Included on the program presented by the children were choruses and songs which the pupils sang from memory; a Bible salute, and two violin solos by little Andrew Appling, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Alfred A. Appling at the piano, the second selection played being a surprise number in honor of his teacher, Mrs. Sutherland. The Lord's Prayer, the 23rd Psalm, and the names of the books of the Bible were among the various memory selections given by the children. Especially interesting was a short Bible talk given by Miss Mrie Carter of San Francisco, who is connected with the Bible Institute of Los Angeles.

Following presentation of report cards to the children by their teachers, Mrs. Louis J. Gall and Mrs. William Jones took several pictures of the happy young people standing on the lawn west of the clubhouse.

Veteran Rebekahs Elect New Officers

Following their luncheon meeting Friday afternoon at Birch park, Veteran Rebekahs elected officers for the new year. Mrs. Charles Morgan was in charge of the business session.

Mrs. Walter Moore was named new president; Mrs. Bess McDonald, vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth Lavery, second vice president; Mrs. Kate Rinsched, secretary; Mrs. Dolores Goodwin, financial secretary; Mrs. Jo Whistler, trustee; Mrs. Effie Means, marshal.

Mrs. C. H. Marcher, committee on resolutions; Miss Ellenora Shafer, inside guard; Mrs. E. C. Kuhl, chaplain; Mrs. L. H. House, Mrs. Nannie Myers, Mrs. Agnes Collum, finance committee.

Forty-five members were present at the meeting. The next session will be held Friday, September 2.

BOLSA

BOLSA, Aug. 8.—O. E. Packard is on a two weeks vacation from the L. A. Gas and Electric company plant at Seal Beach and with his family is taking short trips about the country.

Bill Wallingford is back from Long Beach where he spent a week at the Breakers hotel as a delegate to the Phi Sigma fraternity which was in convention for a week.

Louis Bauer also of the Wallingford store, has returned to his duties following a month's vacation on which he spent two weeks at San Juan Hot Springs and a few days at Santa Barbara with shorter trips between.

Lou Showers of Santa Ana, who has been substituting in the store in the absence of Wallingford and Blauer, finished work here the first of the week.

ONCE WASHDAY SPOILED HER FUN—by C.A. Voight

Panel 1: I'D LOVE TO COME TONIGHT, BARBARA, BUT I KNOW I'LL BE TOO TIRED TO MOVE. WHATEVER MADE YOU PICK WASHDAY NIGHT FOR YOUR PARTY

Panel 2: YOU OLD-FASHIONED THING! WOMEN DON'T LET WASHDAY SPOIL THEIR FUN ANYMORE. SEND RIGHT OUT AND GET YOURSELF A BOX OF RINSO

Panel 3: OH YES—THAT'S THE HARD WATER SOAP MY SISTER'S BEEN RAVING ABOUT. SHE SAYS IT'S GREAT FOR DISHES AND SO EASY ON HANDS

Panel 4: BARBARA, I'M THRILLED. I DIDN'T SCRUB OR BOIL—YET I HUNG OUT THE WHITEST WASH EVER. RINSO IS GRAND

Panel 5: TRY RINSO IN YOUR WASH-TUB IF YOU WANT TO SEE SOMETHING REALLY WONDERFUL! IT FLOATS THE DIRT RIGHT OUT—ALL YOU DO IS RINSE. YOU'LL COME TO MY PARTY FRESH AS A DAISY!

Panel 6: WELL, HOW DID YOU ENJOY YOUR SCRUBLESS WASHDAY?

Panel 7: "One box did 4 weeks' washing," says Mrs. Axel Nelson of Oakland

"I've joined the ranks of satisfied Rinso users. It gets my clothes so clean and white with no hard work. Rinso is very easy on the clothes, too. I use it for my finest cottons and linens. I had no idea how far a large package of Rinso would go until I kept track. With only one big box I did four weeks' washing consisting of:

- 12 dresses
- 1 bedspread
- 4 bureau scarfs
- 12 face cloths
- 32 napkins
- 12 pillow cases
- 6 sheets
- 30 towels
- 6 dish towels
- 21 pieces underwear
- 50 handkerchiefs
- 26 nightclothes
- 6 house-dresses
- 3 nightgowns
- 4 aprons
- 23 pairs socks
- 4 table-cloths
- 10 shirts

A little Rinso gives a lot of thick suds, even in hardest water. So easy on the hands and so safe for the clothes. Wonderful suds for dishwashing, too—and for all cleaning. Get the BIG box today.

KREG CONTEST FOR CHILDREN NEARING END

Lorene Croddy who is directing the "Knights and Ladies of the Bath" program weekly over radio KREG announced today that there are but seven days remaining in the scrapbook contest. This contest is open to all children between the ages of 6 and 14 years and the grand prize will be $5 cash. Picture puzzles will also be given as prizes.

The prizes are to be awarded for the best scrapbooks carrying out the ideas of the program. Participation in the contest will not place the children or their parents under any obligations. Miss Croddy, Santa Ana formerly conducted the Children's Hour program over radio KREG, arranged and is presenting the programs as an educational feature.

The contest will be explained again tonight during the broadcast from 6:45 to 7 p. m., to the "Knights and Ladies of the Bath" as the contestants are called. The rules are simple and little effort is required to attain a high standing in the contest. Tonight's subject will be "The Modern Knight's Armor."

DEDICATE PROGRAM TO S. A. CHILDREN

Another program dedicated to the children of Santa Ana will be presented over radio KREG tonight by the Charles Halway Insurance Agency. In addition to the continuation of the history and romance of insurance further announcements relative to the contest being conducted by the Halway Agency will be made.

In this contest children of this district will be supplied with Animal cutouts with directions for assembling them. Prizes will be awarded for the greatest number of animals assembled and the names of prize winners will be announced over the radio weekly. Prizes are crisp new $1 bills.

RADIO FEATURES

Singing a haunting melody from Bizet's seldom-heard opera, "The Pearl Fishers", Richard Crooks will be starred in another voice of Firestone network, between 7:30 and 8, over NBC network including KFI and KFSB. "I Hear As in a Dream" is the title of the aria, a pathetic yet beautiful song with a fascinating background played by the orchestral strings. Crooks will also offer "Just a Song at Twilight", "Mah Lindy Lou", "Mother of Mine" and "Come My Love Lies Dreaming". William Merrigan Daly's orchestra will accompany Crooks.

Secretary of State Harry L. Stimson will address the nation at 8:30 tonight in what the state department has described as an important discussion of America's foreign policy. Before appearing on the air, the Secretary of State will address a dinner of the Council of Foreign Relations at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in New York.

COUNCIL ADOPT RESOLUTION ON GAS TAX FUND

SAN CLEMENTE, Aug. 5.—Following the examples set by other Orange county cities and the Farm Bureau, the San Clemente city council has adopted a resolution petitioning the board of supervisors for a distribution of gas tax funds to the various cities by the board of supervisors.

Following is the resolution which was adopted:

Whereas, under provisions of the Motor Vehicle Fuel Tax Act, the Vehicle Tax Act, the Gross Transportation Receipts tax act, the state of California collects large sums of money annually which are divided between the counties of the state of California according to the provisions of said acts, and

Whereas, the sum of sums accruing to Orange County under these said acts is a sizeable sum amounting to approximately $354,000 in 1929-30, $385,000 in 1930-31, and $356,000 in 1931-1932; which sum was originally and is now intended to be used for the expressed purposes as provided in the respective acts and especially to make possible the construction and maintenance of county and city roads or systems, adapted to present traffic requirements and to do so from funds raised from the use of such road system or systems, and in such a manner as not to assess property with tax burdens beyond the benefits derived and property's ability to pay; and

Whereas, notwithstanding these large annual sums collected and accruing to Orange county from said funds, the cities of Orange county have not received an equitable distribution of these funds and have carried an unduly large proportion of the cost of construction and maintenance of streets for through traffic; and likewise the unincorporated area has been burdened with a special tax, known as the 40-cent road tax, long after the justification for such a special tax burden has passed;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that we, the undersigned respectfully petition the board of supervisors of Orange county to allot to the cities of Orange county, according to a plan to be agreed upon by and between the board of supervisors and a special committee consisting of the mayors of Orange county cities, 32 1/2 per cent of the sum or sums accruing to Orange county from the said funds, which shall be used by the cities of Orange county for the construction and maintenance on designated city streets, that are connecting links with through county or state roads; provided however, that in any particular year, in any city, the designated streets, connecting links with through county roads do not require, for construction and maintenance purposes, all of the monies so allotted to that particular city or cities, then other streets shall be designated to receive such aid for that particular year, providing that such allotments and the expenditure thereof, shall in all instances, conform to the provisions of said above referred to acts; and

"Be it further resolved, that the remaining 67 1/2 per cent of the above referred to sum or sums shall be allotted for constructed and maintenance purposes to designated roads in the unincorporated area, which form connecting links in the through county road system; provided however that in any particular year should these designated roads not require, for construction and maintenance purposes, all of the monies so allotted to them, then the sum over and above the required amounts may either be referred to state road funds, which are used as a reserve for future use on said roads, or spent, in the unincorporated area, on other roads to be designated by the board of supervisors; providing that such allotment and the expenditure thereof in unincorporated areas shall in all instances conform to the provisions of said above referred to acts; and

"Be it further resolved that, since the 40-cent road tax represents an unfair tax burden upon the unincorporated area which was supposed to be relieved through the receipt of the above referred to sum or sums from the said acts, that we respectfully request the board of supervisors to reduce the said 40-cent road tax to 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation."

ANN MEREDITH'S MIXING BOWL

Yes, Nature's Wonderful, If You Help Her

The idiomatic, "Ain't nature wonderful!" has a world of truth behind its jibing inference, when he apply it to the physical body and Nature's ability to clean house if we co-operate even moderately. Take that popular disability—constipation or plain constipation, if you like that better. If drastic cathartics are discontinued and, for the time being, reliance placed on enemas for elimination, presently that sluggish sick intestinal wall will regain its muscular strength and natural elimination will again be established.

Diet has an important part to play in this comeback. It must be bland, no coarse roughage to further inflame bowel tissue, yet BULKY foods must have their place. These foods can be lettuce, spinach and all "greens," tomatoes, cooked and raw, and most vegetables, cooked and well mashed. For raw fruits, use berries and melons; other fruits must be cooked.

The habit of eating something at bed times helps, I find. It may be just a little fruit and something warm to drink. And again in the morning. Eat breakfast, even if it is only a piece of dry toast. The whys and wherefores are too long to explain, just take my word for it to do it.

Tomorrow I will have something to say about the correct way to use the enema as an aid in the correction of colitis.

CHURCH EVENT IS MARKED SUCCESS

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 6.—More than 100 people attended the evening of games sponsored by the Happy Workers society of the Presbyterian church at the church hall a recent evening when croquet, horseshoes and miniature golf were played on the lawns where lights were strung, brilliantly lighting the grounds, while "ping pong," "pit" and similar indoor games were offered as entertainment inside the hall.

Mrs. C. G. Carter was general chairman of the games and had her assistants for each different game.

Ten cents per person was the charge made and this included free access to any games and refreshments of punch and cookies. As everything was donated, the society cleared $10.25 on admissions and $5.30 on homemade candies which were on sale. This amount goes for the July pledge of the Happy Workers to the church budget, leaving some in the treasury.

Mrs. Ruth Penhall has been appointed treasurer of the Happy Workers filling the unexpired term of Mrs. Wm. Schmidt who has resigned.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Green Apple Deep-Dish Pie
About 4 pounds green apples peeled and sliced thin
2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons butter, diced
1 box any kind of tart berries, preferably wild blackberries
Pastry for top crust

England is the traditional home of green apple deep-dish pie, and there the apples are invariably combined with blackberries. When the little wild blackberry is available you have the world's best pie at your elbow. But wild blackberries are almost as hard to find as the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow, so content yourself with fresh raspberries, loganberries, or the garden variety of blackberry. The pie may be served either hot or cold, and with plain cream. For utensils supply both fork and dessert spoon.

The pan is of first importance: It must be deep, yet fairly large. For a six-pound pie sometimes use the angel-food cake pan, the tube makes a fine tent pole for the pastry. If a flat pan is used put a small jelly glass in the center to keep the pastry out of the juice.

Peel and slice the apples into the pan, sugar and butter them per recipe. If berries are to be used spread over the apples, reserving part of the sugar for them. Make a sheet of rich pie paste, drape it over the pan, tuck in the edges, and bake in a medium hot oven until the fruit is done.

Right now, Yellow Transparents, or Gravensteins, make most delicious pies. They cook up very quickly, so your oven can be a trifle hotter than you'd use for other apples.

Even though this pie is minus its bottom crust, it isn't minus a lot of calories. I find in this one some 3200 calories, mostly the kind that make the sparks fly, and lacking need for energy sparks, this pie adds still another bend to one's already abundant curves.

Forgive me for digressing from the distressing duty of scandalizing fat calories, but one of the joys of old age must be the relief from guarding the waist line, so important in the forties and fifties. I shall have this pie frequently when 60 years are behind me, but now I look and yearn!

In looking over some work done several years ago I found a leaflet called HOPE CHEST TREASURES that had so many delightful things in it, I decided 'twas time to put it on the free list again. You will find in it all sorts of good ideas for frequent tasty dishes.

Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope when you write for it. There is no extra charge this week.

Tuesday's recipe will be Mrs. C's contribution: Onions in Tomato Sauce.

CARD PARTY HELD BY REBEKAH CLUB

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 8.—Rebekah club members played cards for the day recently at I. O. O. F. hall with pot-luck luncheon served at noon. When scores were tallied Miss Ella Murdy was found to have first place while Mrs. India McDaniels scored second. Mrs. Alice Hare and Mrs. Nellie Morgan were hostesses of the day. The next meeting is scheduled for the first day of September and will be a beach party with picnic luncheon at Huntington Beach.

Present at Thursday's party were Mrs. Winifred Morris, Mrs. Nellie Murdy, Mrs. May Mansperger, Mrs. India McDaniels, Mrs. J. A. Murdy, Miss Ella Murdy, Mrs. Nellie Parr, Mrs. Fred Poe, Mrs. Frankie Van Uden, Mrs. Anna Abbott and Mrs. Mattie Wilson and Mrs. Alma Davis who are the houseguests of Mrs. Parr and Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Hare.

"RACING YOUTH" AT WALKERS' TODAY

Whirlwind romance, pulse-quickening intrigue, thrilling shrieks of powerful racing cars and good old-fashioned unrestrained laughs are tightly packed in Universal's "Racing Youth," the Walker's State theater film.

Reminding one forcibly of the honest-to-goodness motion pictures that thrilled us all in the days of Warren Kerrigan, Wallace Reid and William S. Hart, a handsome young fellow by the name of Frank Albertson falls in love with the beautiful helress who owns the auto factory where he works, wins the vital auto race in a thrilling finish, routs the villains, and then wins his boss in a delicious manner that makes you live it with him.

CHURCH EVENT IS MARKED SUCCESS

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 6.—More than 100 people attended the evening of games sponsored by the Happy Workers society of the Presbyterian church at the church hall a recent evening when croquet, horseshoes and miniature golf were played on the lawns where lights were strung, brilliantly lighting the grounds, while "ping pong," "pit" and similar indoor games were offered as entertainment inside the hall.

Mrs. C. G. Carter was general chairman of the games and had her assistants for each different game.

Ten cents per person was the charge made and this included free access to any games and refreshments of punch and cookies. As everything was donated, the society cleared $10.25 on admissions and $5.30 on homemade candies which were on sale. This amount goes for the July pledge of the Happy Workers to the church budget, leaving some in the treasury.

Mrs. Ruth Penhall has been appointed treasurer of the Happy Workers filling the unexpired term of Mrs. Wm. Schmidt who has resigned.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Green Apple Deep-Dish Pie
About 4 pounds green apples peeled and sliced thin
2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons butter, diced
1 box any kind of tart berries, preferably wild blackberries
Pastry for top crust

England is the traditional home of green apple deep-dish pie, and there the apples are invariably combined with blackberries. When the little wild blackberry is available you have the world's best pie at your elbow. But wild blackberries are almost as hard to find as the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow, so content yourself with fresh raspberries, loganberries, or the garden variety of blackberry. The pie may be served either hot or cold, and with plain cream. For utensils supply both fork and dessert spoon.

The pan is of first importance: It must be deep, yet fairly large. For a six-pound pie sometimes use the angel-food cake pan, the tube makes a fine tent pole for the pastry. If a flat pan is used put a small jelly glass in the center to keep the pastry out of the juice.

Peel and slice the apples into the pan, sugar and butter them per recipe. If berries are to be used spread over the apples, reserving part of the sugar for them. Make a sheet of rich pie paste, drape it over the pan, tuck in the edges, and bake in a medium hot oven until the fruit is done.

Right now, Yellow Transparents, or Gravensteins, make most delicious pies. They cook up very quickly, so your oven can be a trifle hotter than you'd use for other apples.

Even though this pie is minus its bottom crust, it isn't minus a lot of calories. I find in this one some 3200 calories, mostly the kind that make the sparks fly, and lacking need for energy sparks, this pie adds still another bend to one's already abundant curves.

Forgive me for digressing from the distressing duty of scandalizing fat calories, but one of the joys of old age must be the relief from guarding the waist line, so important in the forties and fifties. I shall have this pie frequently when 60 years are behind me, but now I look and yearn!

In looking over some work done several years ago I found a leaflet called HOPE CHEST TREASURES that had so many delightful things in it, I decided 'twas time to put it on the free list again. You will find in it all sorts of good ideas for frequent tasty dishes.

Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope when you write for it. There is no extra charge this week.

Tuesday's recipe will be Mrs. C's contribution: Onions in Tomato Sauce.

CARD PARTY HELD BY REBEKAH CLUB

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 8.—Rebekah club members played cards for the day recently at I. O. O. F. hall with pot-luck luncheon served at noon. When scores were tallied Miss Ella Murdy was found to have first place while Mrs. India McDaniels scored second. Mrs. Alice Hare and Mrs. Nellie Morgan were hostesses of the day. The next meeting is scheduled for the first day of September and will be a beach party with picnic luncheon at Huntington Beach.

Present at Thursday's party were Mrs. Winifred Morris, Mrs. Nellie Murdy, Mrs. May Mansperger, Mrs. India McDaniels, Mrs. J. A. Murdy, Miss Ella Murdy, Mrs. Nellie Parr, Mrs. Fred Poe, Mrs. Frankie Van Uden, Mrs. Anna Abbott and Mrs. Mattie Wilson and Mrs. Alma Davis who are the houseguests of Mrs. Parr and Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Hare.

THE TINYMITES

The large balloons were pricked so bad that, really, it was very sad. "There is no chance to fix them," whispered Duncy, with a frown.

"If we just had some glue I know that I could fix them so they'd blow right up again, but now, I guess, they're doomed to all stay down."

Then Scouty said, "I'll try my luck. If we can find where they were stuck, we might plug up the pesky holes with little bits of wood."

"Hand me my mule. It seems the worst. That's why I'll try to plug it first." But, when he tried, the plugging didn't turn out very good.

"Oh, my, it leaks to beat the band," said Coppy. "It won't even stand. There's no sense trying any more. We're through with them, I guess."

And then poor Duncy loudly cried, "Why did we take this crazy ride? It seems that we are always getting into some bad messes."

"Oh, well, there's no use crying now," said Scouty. "I am sure, somehow, that we can get out of this forest, if we look around. I'll lead the way. Just follow me and we will see what we can see." They looked and looked and then, tired out, all flopped down on the ground.

It wasn't very long until all of the Tinymites were still. And then there came some little snores. The lads were all tired out.

Of course, not one of them could see a monkey, high up in a tree, that gazed down on them, wondering what it was all about. The monkey soon dropped to the ground and amongst the Tinies, waddled round. And then it grabbed wee Duncy just as tight as tight could be.

Before the lad could say a thing, the monkey gave himself a fling and, with poor Duncy in its arms, climbed right back up the tree.

San Clemente Council Slashes City Budget $4,827

SALARY CUT OF EMPLOYEES AIDS IN REDUCTIONS

SAN CLEMENTE, Aug. 8.—Slashing the budget $4,827.32 the city council of San Clemente at its last meeting approved its financial expenditures for the year 1932-33. For the coming fiscal year the city will spend $63,339.64. In 1931-32 the expenditure was $68,166.36. A pay slash of 13 per cent adopted early this year, a move to stop all vacations with pay for the year 1932-33 and other cuts, brought about the reduced budget.

Departments contributing the most to the reduced budget were park and playgrounds, which include the golf course, beach club, municipal pier, the water department and capital disbursements. Savings were also made in the street and sewer departments. General government expenditures, police and fire departments will call for practically the same expenditure as last year.

The 1932-33 budget calls for the following expenditures: general government, $14,346; police department, $6780; fire department, $1735; sanitation, $1560; streets, $9035; miscellaneous, $2941.60; capital disbursements, $2329.79; water department, $13,721.65; parks and playgrounds, $11,020; equipment for water department, $70.

In the budget provision is made for the purchase of two trucks, one for the water department and one for street work. Provision is also made for the engagement of E. L. Schneberger as deputy tax collector at a salary of $1500 a year.

During the year $60,000 will be spent on the Spanish village water system but this money does not come under jurisdiction of the budget as that $60,000 is a bond issue voted for this purpose. It is said that the same tax rate will be adopted as for 1931-32 but decreased valuation, reduction in the lighting tax and other reductions will find taxes lower in 1932-33 than last year, it was reported.

CLUB TO MEET

SAN CLEMENTE, Aug. 6.—The Arts and Craft section of the San Clemente Solano Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Munro Thurman next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Soldiers Give Concert And Drill at Beach

SAN CLEMENTE, Aug. 8.—Soldiers from the 251st Coast Artillery, anti-aircraft section, 381 in number, commanded by 25 officers, camped at San Clemente on Friday night. Six batteries and a medical unit were quartered in the Spanish Village.

The battalion from San Diego arrived at 11 o'clock in the morning, the one from Long Beach early in the afternoon. A radio station was set up, telephone communications established, searchlights stationed on the hills near the beach club and a guard mount held in the afternoon.

In the evening a band concert and searchlight drill was held. The two outfits took up the march for the summer camp at Fort MacArthur early on Sunday morning. Lieutenant-Colonel H. M. Morehead was regimental commander. Major John H. Sherman was battalion commander of the San Diego unit, Major Ronald N. Harris in charge of the Long Beach batteries.

ENTERTAIN SEWING CLUB WITH PARTY

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 8.—A most delightful party was held recently when Mrs. J. A. Williams entertained members of her sewing club at her home on West Chapman avenue.

The early part of the afternoon was spent sewing on quilts and fancy work, after which several games of bridge were played. Attractive prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. O. Fulson and Mrs. L. W. Schauer.

At the refreshment hour, the Olympic idea was carried out in the table decorations. Flags of different countries were placed in gum drop standards at each place. Baskets of beautiful dahlias grown in the Williams garden were used for decorations about the living rooms. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

Members present were Mesdames L. W. Schauer, Jack Jentges, C. B. Henry, E. O. Fulson, Charles Lake, A. J. Woodworth, A. C. Robbins, J. O. Smith, L. L. Dolg, W. J. Newcom and the hosts.

WOMEN'S GROUP OF UNEMPLOYED MAY BE FORMED

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 8.—Plans were discussed for forming an auxiliary of the Unemployed Association at a meeting of the association held recently.

A number of women were present and were in favor of the formation of an auxiliary. It was planned to have a sewing room in the commissary in order that the auxiliary members might mend and take care of clothing for the needy.

Announcement was made that the 25-quart pressure cooker and automatic sealer, which have been ordered, would be here at any time.

E. W. Curry, manager of the Consolidated Ice company, offered to install an ice box and furnish ice for perishable goods during the remainder of the summer.

C. A. Brinnall reported he had seen Frank Holt, chairman of the Newport Beach association, and arrangements had been made to furnish fresh fish and smoked fish for the local commissary once a week. Mr. Brinnall was appointed to have charge of the commissary permanently.

A change was made in the office of treasurer with the appointment of Ernest Littlejohn. Nate Dundas was appointed secretary-treasurer at a former meeting but it was found in the constitution that the offices could not be combined.

Ed Barnech was in charge of the meeting with 44 members present.

Beach City Plans Fire Protection

SUNSET BEACH, Aug. 8.—The Sunset Beach Chamber of Commerce held a meeting at the Rustic Inn recently preceded by a dinner. The desirability of securing fire protection was discussed.

Ray Vnew Drive must be repaired to allow a fire truck to reach the homes located in that section. Harry Cresswell and J. A. Armitage were appointed to investigate the matter. A motion was passed that the Chamber of Commerce buy five tickets to the Seal Beach Firemen's ball August 10.

FISH STORY OF THE YEAR TOLD; HALIBUT TIES HALF-HITCH KNOT AROUND PUMP

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 8.—Even the most ardent disciple of Isaac Walton must admit that this is at least a new one. We have the sail fish from the South Seas, but a fish who is a real "old salt" when it comes to tying knots is in a class by himself, or was.

Capt. O. B. Ayers, who runs the fishing boat J. B. from the end of the Laguna Beach fishing pier, told the tale. He had a cabin boy, freckled and curly-headed, who was a little bit awkward. When the J. B. was several miles off shore yesterday the boy juggled a bilge pump until it fell overboard. It weighed about eight pounds and is four feet long.

Two hours later one of the passengers got a strike that proved to be a 44-inch halibut, weighing 39 pounds. But that is not the wonder. The fisherman fought the denizen of the deep for about fifteen minutes before it was brought to gaff. When lifted from the water, there was the bilge pump secured with as neat a half hitch as any old time sailor could have boasted. It was caught in a section of the line about five feet long.

Capt. Ayers believes that when the pump landed on the bottom something kept it in an upright position. They were fishing in about 120 feet of water. It is probable that the halibut, weaving in and out to get loose from the line succeeded in tying the half-hitch to the pump.

SOCIAL FEATURES CHURCH CLUB MEET

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 8.—A party was held recently in connection with the business meeting of the Young Matrons' club of the Westminster Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Grace Groves a mile south of Bolsa on Wright street. There were games played and refreshments were fruit salad and whipped cream with wafers.

The resignation of Mrs. Louise Carter as ways and means chairman was accepted and it was decided to make of the regular executive board the ways and means committee instead of appointing a separate chairman.

Plans for the bazaar which will be held probably the last of November or December, were talked over. Materials will be purchased for some of the articles to be sold while others will be donated by the members. Work on the articles will be commenced soon. It was voted to buy some new music for the church choir.

There were two guests at the party, Mrs. George Clough and Mrs. Floyd Wright, while regular members present included Mrs. Fern Daley, Mrs. Merle Rhea, Mrs. Lucille Wise, Mrs. Loraine Edwards, Mrs. May Montgomery, Mrs. Alvaretta Campbell, Mrs. Idabelle Penhall, the president of the club, and Mrs. Grace Groves, the hostess.

The September meeting of the group will be held with Mrs. May Montgomery.

WET PLATFORM ANNOUNCED BY CROSBY TODAY

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 8.—Sumner Crosby, Laguna Beach editor and Republican candidate for Congress in the nineteenth California district, declared at his home here today that he is unqualifiedly for repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

"Repeal will be a step toward a return to normal economic conditions," he said. "The failure of prohibition enforcement is an important factor in the wild orgy of spending, both privately and officially, that has led up to this depression."

Crosby, who has just returned from a campaign tour of the cities of the district, was asked if he had anything new to say. He replied:

"I want it clearly understood that I am a wet if that is what they call those who believe in repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment."

Asked to give a specific reason for his stand, the candidate declared:

"It has become my firm conviction that further attempts at enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment are hopeless. The great cost of this futile effort at enforcement and the new class of gangster that it has produced has resulted in a situation which causes society to demand a radical change, that our younger members of society may be protected. When a law is found upon the statute books that cannot be enforced either in the high places or the low, then fundamentally that law is wrong. For no law is higher than the validity it gains in the respect of the average citizen."

"Prohibition has been a monumental experiment and a colossal failure. It elected to Congress I shall vote unqualifiedly for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment."

"Let's read the letter, dear."

It was a brief note. The editor was pleased to inform Daniel Phillips that his manuscript, "Night Life," had won first prize in the magazine's amateur writers' contest. The story would be published with an early issue. The letter ended with the hope that the editor might see more of Dan's work. There were the phrases, "promising," "original flavor" and "vitality."

The young man raised puzzled eyes. "But I didn't enter this contest! I didn't!"

All at once he understood. "You sent it!" he cried. "Cherry, you did this, didn't you?"

"You don't mind, do you, Dan? You see, I knew it—it was a fine story. That time you asked for it—I didn't tell you the truth. I said the manuscript was lost. I sent it away. Oh, I was sure it caused I didn't want to tell you I would win all the time but I wanted to know before I told you. I'm so happy, Dan. I've always known you were going to be a great writer!"

"But I'm not—I'm just a dub. Oh, but Cherry, I'll work as I never worked before! Look—the letter says they'd like to see more of my work. They'll see plenty of it! It's—why, Cherry, this is the great chance of my life—I mean the real one!"

He had used those words before. He thought of Brenda. "Cherry," Dan said slowly, "chances to write stories don't mean so much. All I want is the chance to show how much I love you. How different everything is going to be for us from now on!"

The girl smiled. "We'll take that chance together, Dan. It's—the happy ending of the story."

"And the beginning of a new one!"

Then Cherry said the word that is the happiest of all endings and all beginnings. Cherry said "Yes!"

"A letter!" she said. "For you, Dan. Oh, look—!"

Both of them were staring at the inconspicuous lettering in the upper left hand corner of the envelope. The name was that of a famous magazine. Quickly, with a half-suppressed exclamation Dan tore open the envelope, drew out the sheet that was inside.

"Cherry!" he cried. "Why—why, Cherry—!"

He held a slip of pink paper bearing the words, "Pay to the order of Daniel Phillips, $300."

"There's some mistake," Dan was muttering. "It isn't for me, Cherry. It can't be!"

"Let's read the letter, dear."

DENY CITY TO SEEK SPECIAL CITY CHARTER

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 8.—Reports to the effect that a petition was to be circulated here to arrange for a special charter government for Huntington Beach, could not be confirmed. An out of town daily newspaper carried a story Saturday that such a movement was under way, naming Herbert Gray, Standard Oil employee; J. S. Farquhar, newspaper publisher; C. G. Ward, merchant; A. J. Severson, druggist; Warren J. Bristol, grammar school trustee and Frank Morris, officer of the unemployed organization as the originators. Some of those named denied having any knowledge of the matter.

City officials point out that a charter government would require at least two special elections and confirmation by the state legislature which does not meet until January. The obtaining of a new city charter would have for its most important change, the automatic discharge from office of the present city council and the election of new commissioners to take the place of the council.

Three members of the present council of five members were elected last May by overwhelming pluralities against a field of 10 candidates. Mayor Elton G. Conrad received 52 per cent of the total vote cast at the election. Councilmen J. Ed Huston and John T. Marion received equally flattering support from the voters. There has been no friction in the council and no complaint as to the manner in which city affairs have been administered, it was said. Political enemies of the council, it is claimed, have no cause for demanding a recall, the commonly used method of getting rid of councilmen who have displeased some of the voters.

Political enemies of the council, it is claimed, have no cause for demanding a recall, the commonly used method of getting rid of councilmen who have displeased some of the voters.

City officials point out that a charter government would require at least two special elections and confirmation by the state legislature which does not meet until January. The obtaining of a new city charter would have for its most important change, the automatic discharge from office of the present city council and the election of new commissioners to take the place of the council.

Three members of the present council of five members were elected last May by overwhelming pluralities against a field of 10 candidates. Mayor Elton G. Conrad received 52 per cent of the total vote cast at the election. Councilmen J. Ed Huston and

ROBIN HOOD TO LIVE AGAIN IN LAGUNA DRAMA

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 8.—Robin Hood and love beneath the greenwood trees of Laguna Beach during the forthcoming Festival of Arts. Under the direction of Wayne Moore of the Little Arts theater, the dramatic spectacle, with music, will be produced in Fairy Wood bowl on the evenings of August 13 and 14. Many of the cast that made "Robin Hood" such an outstanding success here four years ago will be in the new production.

Charles Gilmore, who has had wide professional experience, will play the title role, assisted by Stella Harris as Maid Marian, Margo Sangster, widely known for her dramatic work in the art colony, will play the part of Dorothy. Others in the cast include Frank Goddard, Ray Grimes, William Schleicher, Ed Hobart and Johnny Mariner.

Fairy Wood is the perfect setting for the present drama written by Owen Davis. The music, dress and costumes of old England will be brought to life in the three-act play woven around the forest hero of the twelfth century. Music under the direction of Nelly Schwankovsky and costumes designed and executed by Edna Ingalls and Alice Sangster will make "Robin Hood" one of the outstanding artistic events of the art festival.

YOUNG ANAHEIM COUPLE TAKES NUPRIAL TOWNS

ANAHEIM, Aug. 8.—Solemnized at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the garden wedding of Miss Hazel Miller, daughter of Mrs. Stella Miller of South Melrose street, to Gilbert Kuenzli, son of Mrs. Maebelle Kuenzli, of 159 West Broadway street, was one of the prettiest events of the season and culminated a romance of several years that has been watched with interest by the couple's many friends. The ceremony was held in the charming garden at the bride's home and the Rev. S. H. M. Sutherland, formerly of the White Temple Methodist church, officiated at the ring ceremony, which was witnessed by 60 guests, including many members of both families and intimate friends.

Miss Geraldine Yoder, cousin of the bride, and Miss Violet Bielefeld, both wearing formal afternoon frocks of yellow organdy and contrasting corsages of red roses, played piano solos and duets for a half hour preceding the ceremony. Miss Florence Pollock of Santa Ana sang, "I Love Thee" by Grieg, immediately preceding the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march that was played by Miss Yoder.

Coming down the wide stairway of the house into the garden the bride party took their places before a white lattice archway, which had been erected in the garden, while baskets of early autumn flowers and gladioli were banked either side. The bride was beautifully gowned in a white French chiffon gown, fashioned with a wide circular skirt with ruffling at the edge and on the short jacket. The white tulle veil with a short train was bound to the bride's head by orange blossoms.

Miss Maxine Harris, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor and wore a formal afternoon frock of maize crepe and carried tall stems of white Ethel Kuenzli, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid, wore a formal afternoon frock of blue and green and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Scattering petals of roses in the path of the bride, little blonde Shirley Mae Pflingsrud wore a long green organdy frock made with many tiny ruffles. George Willis attended the bridegroom as best man and Richard Gay was an usher.

The guests were received by Mrs. Pflingsrud in a rose beige chiffon with a corsage of tall stems of roses. Mrs. Kuenzli in a white crepe gown and lace jacket with a corsage of tall stems of roses, Mrs. Al Pflingsrud, wearing a peach chiffon and lace frock, Miss Florence Turner wearing a printed crepe gown and Mrs. F. G. Yoder wearing a printed chiffon frock.

The three tier wedding cake was cut by the bride and the refreshments of cake and dainty foods were served the guests in the garden where they found comfortable lounging places amid the colorful garden furniture and potted palms that enhanced the charm of the setting.

For her traveling costume the bride chose an early fall outfit of rust crepe and dark brown accessories of a small turban hat, shoes and purse. The couple will travel north for a few days and then spend the rest of their two weeks wedding trip at Lake Arrowhead. Upon their return they will make their home at 521 North Vine street.

The bride attended the Anaheim schools and since graduation in 1928 has been an associate teacher at the Orange County School of Fine Arts where she will continue with her chosen vocation. She is also pianist for the Business and Professional Women's club and for the Lion's club.

The bridegroom is a salesman for the Anaheim Fullerton Creamery company. He attended the Brea schools.

SIX ANAHEIM BOYS RETURN FROM CAMP

ANAHEIM, Aug. 8.—Six Anaheim boys have returned from Monterey where they have been attending the Citizens' Military Training Camp having completed the summer 30 days' course. The complete course is of a four year duration and includes training in infantry, cavalry and field artillery tactics and athletics.

Those attending from here and returning with highly coveted medals and honorary awards were James Dunfili and Edward Heine, Company C of the infantry regiment, with marksmen's medals for excellent rifle shooting, Richard Maboe of Troop B of the cavalry and scored sharpshooter with the rifle, and Leslie Chamberlain and Robert Baum were candidates for making the field artillery course. Edwin Rundstrom received training as a machine gunner and was rated as a sharpshooter.

One manufacturer of a feeding mash ingredient, namely NOPCO XX, has taken a keen interest in showing poultrymen what can be done with Vitamin D the year 'round in laying mash. To demonstrate their faith in their product—NOPCO XX—the National Oil Products company is giving away free 90,000 pounds of feed in 45 different cities right after November 30, 1932.

The free feed test sponsored by this paper in cooperation with the manufacturer of NOPCO XX, is open to every poultryman in this area, and 2000 pounds of feed in to be given away free to poultrymen and turkey raisers in this area who write in their own way and words, the benefits their birds show from daily feeding of laying mash containing NOPCO XX. An independent committee will select the seven best letters and deliver them to NOPCO. The winners will be notified right after November 30, 1932 through this newspaper by NOPCO, who will send orders to local dealers for the 2000 pounds of feed. The poultryman's letter must be postmarked not later than midnight November 30, 1932. Entry blanks can be had at feed dealers.

First award is 1000 pounds (10 sacks) of laying mash free if the entry's letter from this newspaper's area is selected as best. Second award is 500 pounds (5 sacks) of laying mash. One pound (1 sack) will be awarded to each of the next 5 poultrymen whose letters are accepted.

Members of 4-H clubs also may enter the free feed test.

The honoree was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses from the hostess. At the tea hour Mrs. Henry Adams poured from the tea urn at a table that was attractively laden with dainty refreshments. MARATHON COURSE EASY, SAYS NURMI

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(INS)—The Olympic marathon course this year was the easiest in the history of the games, according to Paavo Nurmi, great Finnish runner. He had been permitted to run the full marathon but he had covered the distance in two hours and 20 minutes, Nurmi said.

Juan Carlos Zabala, of Argentine, won the race and set a new Olympic record of 2:31:36. Athletes at Olympic Village were interested in an unverified report that Nurmi and Zabala planned to tour the country in a series of presumably professional match races.

"BIG THREE" MEETS EAST IN FOOTBALL

ern California All-American back, will provide a new thrill. After several seasons of terrific hand-to-hand encounters in the coast's big games, Ray Hulen, Stanford guard; Bob Hall, Southern California tackle; and Ralph Stone, California end, will be seen playing shoulder to shoulder and fighting for a common cause against eastern rivals.

Teams from California's "Big Three" have never met representatives of the East's "Big Three" in football before and tonight's game will be the first crack the rivals will have had at each other. Both squads are reported by the famous Jones brothers—Howard of Southern California and Tad of Yale—to be in top shape and to be working their plays in an exceptionally smooth manner.

Another interesting feature of the game is that while the western team will be using Jones formations, they will also show a number of plays with variations put in by Glenn Warner of Stanford and Bill Ingram of California. The coaching, the "head man" in the coaching, the eastern team is using Yale's basic formations, but is working from a military shift which goes into a variety of backfield formations. Neither team knows anything about the offensive plans of the other, and as there has been no scouting on either side, there may be some surprising trick plays executed.

Japan, who was ninth, entered the stadium. He was obviously "out on his feet" but gamely circled the track. As he neared the finish he became confused, faltered, and was about to fall to the ground.

Attendees leaped forward to support him when the solemn voice of the announcer warned against aiding any runner. The little Jap shook his head, and stumbled and fell across the finish line, a game and brave athlete who deserved the cheers he won.

Zabala, half hysterical with joy, kept his feet and vigorously waved his blue striped flag until after the victory ceremony when he collapsed and was carried off the field on a stretcher. In contrast to the exhaustion of Zabala, Tolonen jogged off the field coolly and contentedly. And Ferris, the Englishman, who finished second, managed to get dressed in time for victory ceremony and before half of the runners had finished.

Olympic track and field champions, officially crowned, follow in men's and women's events:

AND BESIDES... DID IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU THAT SOMEBODY MIGHT HAVE BEEN PLAYING A JOKE ON YOU WITH THAT TELEGRAM?

IT MAY BE ONE OF SUICERS' JOKES—IT SOUNDS LIKE IT. IF YOU WERE A FISH, THEY'D HAVE TO THROW YOU BACK 27 TIMES BEFORE YOU'D BE BIG ENOUGH TO TAKE HOME... YOU'D HAVE YOUR SCALES WORN OFF PUSHING OTHER FISH AWAY FROM THE HOOK... ESPECIALLY IF IT WAS BAITED WITH FLATTERY.

THE MEASURE OF A MAN TAKEN IN ADVERSITY

An interesting advertisement appeared in Saturday's paper from the First National Bank. It emphasized the possibility of a direct connection between personal achievement and hard times.

We believe there is considerable more than theory in this idea. When times have been good, and money plentiful, and everybody spending, all an athlete had to do was to show some form, and a group of patriotic citizens was ready to send him to New York or to Amsterdam to advertise their village. But now even Stella Walsh could hardly get a job, from which she could get money enough to pay her way to the Olympic Games, break the world's record, and become the Olympic Champion in the 100 meter dash.

People are doing things individually. People are learning actually what the ground is for. Some people are raising garden truck, who three years ago didn't know whether to matos grow on trees, or if they dug them out of the ground. People are becoming more self-reliant. And there is no question but what the same personal purpose and psychology has had its affect all the way through the representatives from the various countries in the Olympic Games.

We do become too soft in times of plenty. Some way or other, man is so constructed that he rises to the occasion, as a rule, surprises those who know him best, when he is confronted with Herculean duties. This time does bring out the men and women with intestinal fortitude. Probably a bank is in a good position to know it. It sees those who go down because of adversity, and it sees those who cannot be put down in spite of adversity.

This is a great time for getting the measure of men from the inside out. All records are being broken, not only in the Olympiad, but everywhere around us. And when the people finally get a real "toehold" and start going up again, they are going to be in a physical and mental condition to go. And as the schoolboy would say: "And I don't mean maybe."

Another bad thing about the new three-cent letter postage is that it now costs more to write home for money.

THE TAXPAYER'S DOLLAR

The estimated cost of government in the United States for the coming year,—federal, state, and municipal,—is estimated at $15,000,000,000. This is an inconceivable amount of money. The figures as printed reveal nothing of the vastness of the amount or the varied and multimodal activities for which the money is spent. Government, which in earlier days was very simple, has become tremendously complex. With the passing of the years, government has taken on more and more responsibilities. It educates the children, it provides for the public health, it supports the poor, the aged, and the insane, it helps the farmer, provides information for the business man,—all in addition to the general matters for which government exists.

A mathematical genius has drawn a circle, within which he classifies the objects for which the federal dollar is to be spent the coming year. Congress has appropriated some three and three-quarters millions of dollars. Of this 20.45 cents are to be spent for civil functions, 7.15 cents for general functions, and the remainder (16.35 cents for national defence; 26.7 for military pensions, 28.83 cents for public debt, largely the legacy of wars) for the cost of war, the legacies of war, and the preparation for war. In other words, over 68 cents of every federal dollar is spent in the sphere of the military.

Yet the disarmament conference is at a stalemate. There is not wisdom enough, courage enough, anywhere to face the real situation. Fear, the desire to control and to profit, on the part of the nations has loaded these obligations upon the taxpayer. Who is responsible but the taxpayer?

WILL THE GOVERNMENT ULTIMATELY HAVE THE RAILROADS ON ITS HANDS

In view of the large loans being made to many of the railroads of the country by the government through the Reconstruction Finance corporation, the question has been raised whether it may not be necessary at some time in the future for the government to foreclose its mortgage and take the railroads over. In many quarters it is believed that the railroads are an increasing liability. If this be the case, it may become impossible for the railroads to meet their obligations to the government. In such an eventuality the government cannot cancel these loans, but must foreclose.

It would be a strange irony if, after all the hullabaloo of government ownership of railroads, the government, against its intention or will, should have to operate them. Yet this is quite possible. Like any other creditor, the government would have to protect its interests by selling to the highest bidder or taking them over. Which of these alternatives would be the most desirable is not clear. We hope it will not come to this pass. But the government today, through its great loans to railroads and banks, is in business with a vengeance, and whether it can ever get out again, or even stop from getting in deeper, is exceedingly problematic.

But we have other problems that are more pressing at the present time. The question of getting back to business normalcy is the primary question. When we get back to normal, we shall see what the railroads can do under more favorable conditions. The tide is against them; but something of a supplemental business, like the bus business, may be annexed by the railroads. In that way they may recoup themselves. It should be noted, however, that unless the railroads do recoup themselves, it will be the weakest ones that will fall into government hands first. This will find the government holding the bag. From this condition the strongest railroads may reap all the advantage.

UNEMPLOYED HI-JINKS

Tomorrow night at the Santa Ana High School auditorium there will be a benefit entertainment for the unemployed. Announcements have been made of the program that is being arranged under the auspices of the Metro Studio officials. Lo-Lo, the famous Al G. Barnes and Ringling Brothers' clown and comedian is on the bill, and Sol Gonzales and the orchestra and Spanish performers who took the first prize at the Newport Tournament of Lights. The attractive features are too numerous to list here. The value of the performance is in harmony with all the undertakings of the Unemployment organization.

The organization commands the respect of the whole community because it is self-respecting. It is doing a piece of work which arouses enthusiasm. People who stop being sympathetic with the work of that organization are losing an opportunity for a real thrill. Draw a little closer to this splendid work by being one of the helpers, for it is a real inspiration. The joy and pleasure of enrolling as one of the helpers of this organization is afforded through the tickets for the performance tomorrow night. None has been close to this organization without becoming enthusiastic for the work that is being done and proud to be one of the assistants.

These people who are helping themselves through this organization are deserving of our fullest possible cooperation. All those who can do so will find it a joy to buy a ticket for everyone in the family, and also for the cat and the dog and the canary. The spirit of the purchase will be appreciated immeasurably to inflate our own spirits.

Canada Can Dream of Day When It Heads Empire

The San Bernardino Sun

The Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa is especially impressive, coming as it does at a moment when the whole British Empire, as well as the United States, has its imagination stirred by the St. Lawrence seaway project.

That waterway, the greatest ever planned by man to fulfill the promises of nature, may mean even more to Canada in the long run than it does to the United States. It will give her richest and most populous portion, now inland, direct access to the Atlantic and Europe, as her western provinces already have direct access to the Pacific and Asia. As an American newspaper writer says:

"The St. Lawrence seaway is a utilitarian project of the United States; it is the symbol of destiny to Canada."

England, prolific mother of British dominions, grows old. The other dominions are scattered and weak, compared with Canada. She is young, strong, venturesome, having the steadfast qualities of the British combined with the flexibility and enterprise of the American. Is it too great a stretch of the imagination to fancy that where that Imperial conference now sits will be some day the capital of the British Empire?

Kindness to a Defeated Rival

The San Francisco Chronicle

Poetic justice and generosity to a fallen foe are combined in the action of the New Orleans gas stations in inviting the horses to come in and have a drink.

Once watering troughs on convenient corners were a feature of every city. As the motor car has driven Dobbin from the highway the fountains have been permitted to dry up so that the few horses remaining in service must often have envied the canines' storage capacity.

New Orleans has come to the aid of the horse by establishing the custom of water buckets at the gas stations. Thirsty old Dobbin need no longer be tantalized by seeing his victorious rivals run in to the Moorish palace on the corner and fill up their radiators. He can fill his own up at the same station.

Good old Dobbin! If he wants a little free air or his windshield polished he ought to have that, too.

A LOST CAUSE

The life of the Sultan of Sulu
Is one that I cannot condone.
He has wives by the score and each year marries more
When he ought to have one wife alone.
But his subjects are hardened by usage,
A tolerance kindly is theirs,
And they never have been very keen to butt in
On their monarch's domestic affairs.
They remark, "You but do what your ancestors did,
And why should we harp at a custom, old kid?"

But as soon as the Sultan goes modern,
And whiffs with a gusto and zest
The slim cigarette they're alarmed and upset
At a habit which comes from the West.
They're alarmed for their potentate's future,
They are worried and troubled and vexed,
And they cry in dismay: "What has got him that way,
And what will the fellow do next?
We presently all shall be sunk as a nation
And merged in an infidel civilization!
I feel for the people of Sulu,

They're a simple and primitive folk
And they ought to succeed in their war on the weed,
Lest their country be smothered in smoke.
But I fear the result of the struggle
Will end in a different way,
For we cannot hold fast to a vanishing past,
We are destined to live in today.
"Civilization must follow the flag,"
Observes the wise Sultan, while puffing his flag.

Germany's debt and the debt of the Allies have one thing in common. Both will be forgiven because they can't be collected.

A victim of snubbing deserves little sympathy if he deliberately slaps it on your raw shoulder.

AMERICANISM: Asking the biggest bankers to quit their own business and save our banking system; making it illegal for them to borrow money to save their own banks.

CORRECT THIS SENTENCE: "HE WON HIS FOLLOWING OF MILLIONS," SAID THE CRITIC "BY APPEALING TO MAN'S INTELLIGENCE."

(Copyright, 1932, Publishers Syndicate)

Sunday afternoon my sister Gladdis came around and ma started to wipe her eyes and blow her nose with her hankerchief, and Gladdis said, Why mother, you've been crying.

Well yes, a little, mad said, and pop said, A little, yee gods, I don't want any wife of mine to cry at all. I want all my wives to be as happy as kings, I mean queens. If I was a wife of mine I'd be singing like a bird the whole day long. Tell me what brute made you cry and I'll brake every bone in his body. Yee gods I hope it wasn't me, he said.

No, of course not, don't be silly, it wasn't anything, really, ma said. I'm all rite now, she said, and Gladdis said, Well what was it all about, mother, maybe it will relieve your feelings to get it off your chest.
Well, I was glancing over the family album and I happened to turn to the picture of myself as a bride, and O, I looked so sweet and beautiful and innocent, with my big eyes and sad gentle smile, holding my bowkay of orange blossoms. O dear, I looked so lovely, so beautiful, she said.

Well what happened, who dared to say anything to you? pop said, and ma said, I didn't say anybody said anything.
Then where does the weepy part come in? pop said, and Gladdis said, My stars, father, are you perfectly and utterly devoid of sentiment?

I don't know, I haven't been examined lately, pop said, and I said, G, pop, now Gladdis is crying.
Which she was, making ma start again too, and pop said, This way out, Benny, it's time for the men fokes to take a wawk.

Which we did, and I said, Well gosh, pop, why did she, why are they?

Because they're wimmin, pop said.
Sounding like a pritty good of a reason.

In the Long Ago

14 Years Ago Today

From The Register Files

AUGUST 6, 1918

Los Alamitos Sugar company started its twenty-first sugar making season on the previous day (August 7) and was believed to be the first southern mill to open the campaign, which was expected to continue for four and a half months. This company always had been from one to three weeks earlier than other Southern sugar mills.

Automobile club of Southern California advocated the universal adoption of a code of signals by auto drivers as a measure to lessen accidents. Since only one signal, an out-thrust arm, was in effect, the argument was that if everyone mastered the three simple signals, it would acquaint those in a car approaching from the rear, with what the driver ahead meant to do. The Motor Car Dealers' association of San Francisco was furthering the project in the northern part of the state.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

REAL AND BOGUS ECONOMY

I have just returned from an inspection tour of the branch experimental stations of the college of agriculture which is part of the university of which I am the executive head.

Day after day I have walked over the fields of these experimental farms with great crowds of farmers as they watched with eager interest the living demonstrations of the results of research in the laboratories of the college of agriculture.

At each of these stations I spoke to the assembled hosts of farmers before we went into the fields to see those research results demonstrated.

In each case I spoke of a matter that some of my colleagues thought would prove highly unpopular in this time of almost hysterical agitation for drastic economy in public expenditures.

I spoke on the topic of Bogus Economy. I argued in detail a contention I stated in these articles some weeks ago, namely, that in the present epidemic of budget slashings we are in danger of setting American civilization back for a generation, unless we keep clear the distinction between real and bogus economy.

Some of my colleagues were surprised at the enthusiasm of response to the contention that much that is today being touted by the politicians as economy is in reality treason to the American future.

I was not greatly surprised by this response, for the farmer can see daily on his farm the difference between real and bogus economy.

The farmer with a great herd of dairy cattle knows that he could cut down on the quality and quantity of feed for his dairy cattle and, as far as mere day book and ledger accounts are concerned, make a showing of economy in the operation of his farm, but he knows all too well that an ill considered reduction of the quality and quantity of feed for his dairy cattle will result in a definite reduction in the quality and quantity of his dairy products, and that what had the look of economy would be in reality waste.

Here, on a small scale, is a problem that confronts the whole nation.

The scientific, social, educational and economic services of government are in the foreground of the picture. They become, therefore, the main target for the altogether legitimate demand for economy. But these, after all, are the things that have made life liveable on this continent. The real reduction of governmental costs will be found elsewhere, if statesmanship lives up to its obligation.

Tomorrow I want to suggest just one spot in the picture of government where some real economy could be effected and much of the present bogus economy be rendered unnecessary.

HITCH HIKERS

I have one word for hitch hikers. Don't. It has become good sport for boys and girls to hitch hike about the country. It seems to me that it is a poor kind of sport. There is too much risk for the hiker, no skill, no form enters into the game which is a one sided matter altogether. A young person wanted a trip and he intended to have it at the expense of other people. Not very sporting, that.

I never like to see young people accepting, much less demanding something for which they cannot pay, for which they have no intention of allowing a young person to demand pleasure, or even comfort, from someone else without obligation of any sort on his own part. Not even that of good manners.

The drivers of cars do not like to pick up young people along the road. There is a feeling of responsibility in carrying them. Then, too, there is always the fear that they may not be the harmless young things they appear to be. Most people of good sense ignore the hitch hikers and that leaves them, as a general thing, at the mercy of people not as sensible, not as responsible, not as safe. Once in an automobile the hiker is at the mercy of those who drive it. Put not your trust in strangers, is a good slogan for children.

It is particularly hazardous for young girls to go on a long hitch hike. We have not yet become accustomed to young girls going about the world on the loose, dependent upon the luck of the moment for whatever fortune befalls them. They are not likely to meet with the respect and consideration their state demands. They are far more likely to meet with insult and worse along the road. The young men along the way are certain in their own minds that the miss who stands at the side of the road, traveling by the thumb route, is no shrinking violet and they are likely to accept the opposite idea and treat the traveller with the crudeness her position indicates. You can't blame him for that. The social leader of your town's younger set does not stand by the side of the road hailing all comers for a hitch. It isn't done.

And it ought not to be done. A tramp across country is a fine experience. When a group of boys under the guidance of a responsible leader goes out on the road seeing what they can see, making the acquaintance of the people through whose territory they march, they are likely to have the time of their lives. The same experience benefits the girls. There is nothing like a free march across the country to broaden the young person's horizon. But that sort of thing is a far cry from the hitch hike.

To those who set up a wall, demanding, "How am I to get there, then?" all I have to say is, "Why should you get there if you cannot go the right way? Why should you get there by making other people pay your way in money, anxiety, work? Why can't you stay where you are until you have the power to go as you should?" I have no faith in, no use for, the young person who thinks the world owes him a living. I want him to make his own living, for his own sake.

NEW ALLIED DRIVE

On Aug. 8, 1918, British and French troops in Picardy began a great offensive against the German positions which had been wrested from the allies in March.

On a 25-mile front in the vicinity of Albert the allied forces broke through the German defenses and advanced to an average depth of more than two miles in a day of desperate fighting. Thousands of prisoners were taken during the day's battle. German regiments which managed to hold their positions were in extreme peril of capture by allied troops who had outflanked them.
